To-Day's Messages.

HEADQUARTERS IN (via Reuter's Ottawa The features of the attack were the forethought and completedness in its preparation, and the use of tanks which, manoeuvring admirably, sprang a surprise upon the enemy. Considering the large number of dead, the haul of 1500 prisoners exceeds expec-tation, even though it includes a battalion commander and the greater part of his command. A preparatory raid of bombs on Hamel contributed largely towards keeping down our casualties. The enemy's attention was distracted by three distinct at-

PARIS, To-Day. was distracted by three distinct attacks, launched north of the river, which kept his guns busy. Nearly a hundred men and some ground was captured in these attacks, which completely deceived the enemy regarding what was happening across the river. The German divisions engaged, which suffered heavily, were the 43rd, 77th and 130th: the latter is a new division on this front, having recently moved from Lens.

Termains in Russia, former Premier Kerensky told the Permanent Communications from the Canadian Controller regarding with the triumph of the Socialist party. "A year and a half ago," he said, "the triumph of the Russian revolution seemed a turning point in the history of the world. To-day one sees but chaos, the loss of all conquests won by revolution and the loss even of conditions necessary to civilized existence. Three centuries of Czarism and three years of war have exhausted Russia's natural capital, destroyed her sia's natural capital, destroyed her works and organizations and killed her best workers and peasants."
