WEDNESDAY EVENING AUGUST 22, 1894.

WHOLE NO. 9965

Lord Francis Hope's Prodigality Lands Him in Bankruptcy.

Resignation of the Home Rule Mem. ber for Leicester.

Reports of a Chinese Victory Over the Japs.

The Pope Was in a Serious Condition on Sunday-Herr Dow's Cuirass Pierced by a Bullet,

Pierced His Bullet-Proof Jacket. BERLIN, Aug. 21 .- It is reported Herr Dow, inventor of the builet-proof coat, was wounded during a performance at Aachen last evening, a bullet having pierced his Resignation of a Home Ruler. London, Aug. 21.-James Allanson Picton, M. P. for Leicester, has resigned his seat in the House of Commons on account of ill-health. He has sat for Leicester since 1884, and has been a valued member of the Liberal party, and an earnest supporter of home rule for Ireland. Sir Richard Dilkes' Tour.

London, Aug. 21 .- The Central News announces: Sir Richard Dilks is said to have planned a tour of France's eastern frontier fortresses. He will make the tour during the Parliamentary recess. He is not expected to publish anything concerning the results of his inspection.

Squandered Millions. LONDON, Aug. 21.-Lord Francis Hope's career has led him finally into the bankruptcy court, the plebeian process of whitewashing. He is now 28 years of age. It is seven years since he attained his majority, and in that brief period he has contrived to run up debts to the amount of £650,000. Debts which exceed half a million may be her holidays. regarded as a pretty good performance, and when we consider that Lord Francis Hope, in addition, contrived to get through a very considerable income annually, we shall probably not be overestimating it if we credit him of having got through a million of money since he came to man's estate (for it would be a contradiction in terms to attribute to him years of discretion in the face of this record). The cause of this expenditure is officially attributed to "extravagance in living, betting and gambling, losses incurred in connection with and on behalf of other persons, and a theatrical speculation." It is probable that everybody knows what the meaning of the latter words is. The debtor offered 7 shilling 6 pence in the pound, but the creditors would not hear of accepting it, and so Lord Francis Hope Pelham-Clinton Hope, the brother and heir of the Duke of Newcastle, who may one day be a duke and a hereditary legislator, has to go through the court just like any petty tradesman who has "gone bust."

The Seat of War.

London, Aug. 21. - Dispatches received from China this evening say that communication with Corea has been stopped completely and that correspondents who started recently for the peninsula have returned, as they found it would be useless to proceed to the seat of war.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times telegraphs: Gen. Tio, commander of the Feng Tien division, telegraphs that on Friday the Chinese attacked the Japanese at Ping Yang and drove them with heavy loss to Chungho, a distance of eleven miles. The Chinese reattacked on Saturday and drove them out of Chungho. The Japanese losses were again heavy.

Chungo is now in the hands of the Chinese. It is expected that another great battle will be fought today.

The Chinese fleet is in full possession of the gulf of Pe Che Li. The Japanese are re-embarking a large number troops at Fusan. In Parliament.

LONDON, Aug. 21.-In the House of Commons James Henry Dalziel (Radical) moved that the House of Lords appropriation be reduced. He complained that the Government had not stated their attitude towards the proposal to withdraw the power of veto from the Upper House.

He was called to order by the Speaker, who admonished him that he must adhere to the subject of the appropriation. After several Radicals had spoken in support of the motion John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, undertook-in Sir Wm. Harcourt's absence to reply for the Government.

The Ministers, Mr. Morley said, wereso fully sensible of the gravity and magnitude of the movement against the Lords, that they refused to raise the issue on a trumpery question of salaries. During the recess they would consider the problem carefully.

Thomas Sexton said that the Government had not risen to the emergency and did not seem to treat earnestly the demands of the people for a change in the House of Mr. Dalziel's motion was rejected by s vote of 76 to 45.

IN THE POLITICAL FIELD.

Reeve W. S. Calvert Nominated by

West Middlesex Liberals GLENCOE, Oat., Aug. 21 .- The Liberal party of West Middlesex as constituted for Deminion purposes met in convention at Glencoe for the purpose of organization and the nomination of a candidate. Mr. A. P. McDougald, the president, was in the chair. The candidates nominated were:

W. S. Calvert, Alex. Stuart, A. P. Mo-Dougald, George C. Elliott. They all retired in favor of Mr. W. S. Calvert, warden of the county of Middlesex, who was made the unanimous choice of the convention.

Grand Lodge, K. of P. WINDSOR, Aug. 21.—The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of Ontario met this morning in this city. The grand officers were in their places and 60 lodges were represented. Col. Beattie, mayor of Windsor, on behalf of the city, gave the Grand Lodge a hearty welcome, which was acknowledged by Grand Chancellor Rispin. The morning session was occupied in con-ferring the Grand Lodge rank of past chancellor on nineteen delegates, following which the grand officers' reports were presented and referred to the various standing ommittees. Notwithstanding the dull times the membership in Ontario has increased, and the Grand Lodge balance of cash on hand has increased about $900.

TRACEDY IN LAMBTON!

An Accident to a Thresher Sets a Barn on Fire.

Two Highly Respected Farmers Caught in the Flames and Cremated.

Forest, Ont., Aug. 21.—One of the most horrible tragedies in the history of Lambton took place today on the farm of Wm. Hayward, in Plympton township, eight miles from Forest. Threshing was in progress, and shortly after starting the cylinder shaft broke and caused a friction which set fire to the straw, and in an instant the interior of the barn was a mass of Neil McPhedran, Stephen Searle and Wm. Greer were at work and their escape was cut off by the flames which filled the man hole to the mow. McPhedran

JUMPED THROUGH THE FIRE and escaped alive, having his hair, whiskers and shirt burned off him. Neither Searle er Greer were ever seen alive again. In a short time the barn was smouldering ruin, and soon after the charred trunks of the

TWO VICTIMS were dug out of the still blazing ruins. Heads, arms and legs were completely burned off. The only means of identifica tion were Greer's brace buckles. Both men leave a wife and family, and were highly respectable farmers. The double funeral takes place tomorrow to Wyoming. Hayward's loss on barn and contents is over $1,000, on which there is $500 insurance. The sad affair has cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood.

THE CAPTURED SPEAK.

Say of the London Liberal Five More Cotton Mills at Fall River,

Mass., Shut Down. At Lebanon, Pa., the Rolling Mills

Latest Charge Against the Pullman System-Rev. Mr. Wickham's Testimony Before the Commission.

Are Rushed With Work.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 21.-The carders and spinners' executive committee held a meeting last night, and there is been made in the brief four hours of their every indication of a strike on the part of stay. At 8:30 the band mustered, but the the unions represented against reduction in | cadets who fell in and marched to the M.

Five more mills shut down today on account of the strike, and there is a decrease of fully 1,500 looms in the looms yet running.

LEBANON, Pa., Aug. 21.-The East Lebanon rolling mills have started up double turn, with orders sufficient to keep the works running for some time. Nearly all of the industries in this city are working full time, and the prospects are decidedly Boston, Mass., Aug. 21.—The mills of Manchester, N. H., will be started on Monday, Aug. 27, on full time. They are now being run two-thirds full, or 40 hours a week. The mill employs 8,000 operatives, and welcome for their return. A OUT. A cut of 12½ per cent has been accepted by employes of the Oregon Railway and

Transportation Company drawing $100 per month or over, and 10 per cent on salaries of from $50 to $100 per month. LABOR DAY AT OTTAWA. OTTAWA, Aug. 21 .- The Labor Day parade, which takes place on Sept. 3, will probably be the largest and best ever seen here. Three thousand five hundred people are to take part. GOV. ALTGELD STIRS UP PULLMAN. CHICAGO, Aug. 21 .- Gov. Altgeld today sent a letter to George M. Pullman in which he outlined the desperate state of affairs among the strikers at Pullman, and invited Mr. Pullman to call on him and advise means of relief for the 1,600 starving families in his town. As yet the Governor has received no reply from Mr. Pullman. The Pullman relief company was informed by the Governor that immediate relief was at hand for the sufferers, but he declined to name its source. BEFORE THE LABOR COMMISSION. Heathcote, chairman of the Pullman strike street. The street from Quellette to committee, was recalled. He declared that alternative but to strike.

Rev. M. H. Wickman, the Swedish minister at Pullman, told of the reduction of frequently accorded them rounds of his parishioners' wages. He said the Swed- applause. ish laborers at Pullman were made to pay more rent at Pullman than at Roseland or other places in the neighborhood.

"Why, then," asked Chairman Wright, "do the men not live in Roseland or vicinity?" "They are commanded to live in Pullman on pain of dismissal. Even where men own homes outside Pullman, if work becomes slack these men are the first laid off," said Mr. Wickman. Witness told of the case of an employe who was injured in the Pullman shops and obliged to stay in the hospital for nine weeks. During this time the company charged him rent for his house in Pullman, refused to pay him any damages, and cut down his wages when he returned from the hospital because his injury prevented his doing as much work as formerly. Some of the men have attempted to buy houses on the installment plan, but this is discouraged, as such men are always the first to be laid up when the force is cut down. The men are unfairly treated in various ways. One of the worst features of the Pullman system of house renting is the immorality which it encourages. Many of the work. men are compelled to rent rooms to help out their meager incomes. The houses are so arranged that the roomers must pass through the family sleeping apartments, and as a result the immorality of Pullman is much below that of surrounding towns. There is no way for the workmen to avoid this, as many of them are practically compelled to live in the company's houses.

DEBS' SCHEME. .CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The statement made by President Debs, of the American Railway Union, before the Government railway committee yesterday that within three leaders of all railroad labor organizations that they resign their positions, and railway labor be permitted to form one grand organization under one name and leader, is with friends. thus explained: "I had reference only to the railway unions. I mean to say that within three days we-meaning the officers of the A. R. U.—would submit a proposition to the officers of all other railway labor bodies that they resign their positions, thus leaving their organizations without a head, and that these various bodies elect representatives to meet together in one convention for the purpose of deciding on a plan of union, and then elect entirely new officers and start out on a basis of common

What Windsor and Detroit Papers

Unstinted Praise of the Unique Organ-

The Windsor Record, in its report of the visit of the London Young Liberal Fleet to that city, says that "They came-they saw-they conquered. For a few hours they took possession of the city." Of the bands the Record says they delighted the citizens with their excellent music. The same paper closes its report as follows: "Up to the time of leaving the tars had possession of the town, and many sudden but warm acquaintances seemed to have C. R. would not have made a corporal's guard. The rest of the heroes had either proceeded on the street cars or were scattered about town, absorbed in and led captive by their new friendships. As the band moved off to the familiar strains of "Should auld acquaintance be forgot?" there was a lively scamper from all quarters, but quite a number who found it impossible to tear themselves away from the pleasant associations of Windsor were left and went east on the 2. a.m. train. Officers and men alike spoke in enthusiastic terms of their reception and of Windthe Amoskeag Manufacturing Company at sor as a delightful resort for an outing. On the other hand Windsor was no less pleased with the tars and their friends, and the city has henceforth a standing invitation

(From the Detroit Free Press.) The Young Liberal Association Fleet, of London, Ont., the only organization of the kind in Canada, arrived in Detroit by a special train on the Michigan Central at 10:54 yesterday morning. The organization is unique in nature and comprises nine companies, each 26 strong. They are attired in marine costume, the officers being distinguished by gold-embroidered coats. On their arrival the marines formed for parade with two standard bearers in the van, bearing the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack, the latter being of blue silk, having the national emblems, and a golden beaver surmounted the staff. Shortly before 5 o'clock the Liberal Jack Tars and their friends from London, in all 700 strong, arrived in Windsor on the ferry Victoria. They formed in three columns at the foot of Ouellette avenue. The band, captained by F. L. Evans, and the drum corps, directed by Capt. Clarke, occupied a position in the lead. The line of march proceeded from Ouellette avenue to CHICAGO, Aug. 21 .- Before the United | Windsor avenue, to Chatham street, and on States Labor Commission today Thos. W. Bruce avenue to Quellette, thence to Pitt Windsor avenues was cleared for the the Pullman strike employes had no other accommodation of the corps. Fully 4,000 spectators thronged the streets and as they viewed the maneuvers of the tars they Admiral Wanless rode a spirited charger and directed the maneuvers in true marine style, over 25 of which were performed. The band and drum corps played enlivening music, each playing alternately. Proceeding from the scene of drill, they marched to the British-American Hotel, where a lunch was provided.

(From the Detroit News.) The city of London, Ont., has the distinction of having the first uniformed political organization in the history of Canada, but from the success which it has attained many more will be likely to follow. When the train arrived in Detroit 250 young men in naval uniform, headed by a couple of marine bands, marched to Woodward avenue, where an exhibition drill was given. All were neatly dressed, and the different movements were gone through in a manner that would do credit to a military organization. After they broke ranks the men made their way to the different restaurants, and few of those who saw them eat doubted that they were sailor men. John D. Clark, editor of the ADVES-TISER, was one of the party.

(From the Detroit Journal.)

Windsor Young Liberals are entertaining a crowd of honored guests today, and this evening the club will show their visitors what it can do in the way of entertainment. The Young Liberals of London haveing or ganized a novelty in the shape of a marine command of nine companies, decided to give the boys an outing and show their Windsor brethren a point or two on how to keep up a political organization, and this morning the marines, accompanied by about 350 friends, embarked on a Michigan days a proposition would be made to the Central train and sailed away for Windsor and Detroit. The train arrived in Windson at 10:30, and many of the excursionists left the train to spend the day in Windsor

The marines accompanied the train to Detroit, arriving at 10:54 and forming in at once for parade. The column was a pretty sight, as the 250 cadets in eight companies marched to the tune of a brass band of 30 pieces and a drum corps of 20 members, and as every man in the line wore the regulation uniform of the British marines, the parade was a treat to the Detroiters.

The Journal sent a special photographer to take a picture of the stalwart Admiral Wanless, and had a good portrait of him in an edition issued three hours after the advent of the Fleet in Detroit.
