Now doth the little thoughtful bee Live on last summer's labor; While man, who had good chance as he,
Is living on his neighbor.
—Thirty-one deaths so far this month.
Rev. D. M. Mihell, M.A., B.Th., preaches in Denfield to-morrow.

The great prohibition convention for Ontario has been convened for Feb. 6 at Toronto.
—Miss Violet Weaver, of Dundas street, is visiting friends for a few days in Aylmer.
—A chimney fire on Clarence street gave the firemen a little work last night.
There was no damage done.

—Rev. P. R. Carey, of Denfield, is to occupy the pulpit of Adelaide Street Baptist Church to-morrow.
—There was a large attendance at the infant hop in the Palace Dancing Academy last evening. All spent a pleasant time.
—About 50 youthful spirits, members of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A., spent an enjoyable social in that institution last evening.

—Place your order for spring hats and clothing. Easter Sunday comes early this year, March 25. It will not come so early again until 1913.
The anniversary services of Queen's Avenue Church are to be held to-morrow.
Special sermons will be preached by Rev.
Mr. Bishop, of Toronto.
—The concert in Croydon Hall on Monday evening promises to be an artistic success. Besides Mr. Harold Jarvis, the well-known Canadian tenor, first-class local talent will assist in the programme.

—George Gibson, of this city, was arrested yesterday on the strength of a judgment summons secured at the last sitting of the First Division Court. The suit was brought by Mrs. W. Smith and the debt and the costs amount of $48.07.
—A large concourse attended the funeral of the late Thomas Taylor from the family residence on Queen's avenue east yesterday afternoon. The interment took place at Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Mr. Thos.
McCormick, who is a relative of Mrs.
Taylor, was present.

—Mr. J. W. Jones yesterday sold by auction the stock of J. S. Collins, of Simcoe, consisting of grain, furnishings, hats, clothes, furs, clothing and shop furniture.
The stock was valued at $4,800.34, and was purchased by W. J. Johnston, of this city, at 60¢ cents on the dollar.
—At last business meeting of St. George's Y. P. S. C. E., the following officers were elected: President, Miss Gower; vice-president, Miss Kingmill; treasurer, Miss Faint; recording secretary, Miss Mason; corresponding secretary, Miss Gahan. A vote of thanks was passed to the retiring officers.

—Benj. S. Hanson, a farmer residing in the township of Lobo, has on his property an old shanty, which has long been vacated. James Woodruff, a vagrant, started to make the building his headquarters, and was a result placed under arrest, brought before Justice J. B. Smyth, and remanded till the 19th.

—That was a kindly act of the members of Clan Fraser, when they resolved to pos-sion their next regular meeting which fell on 26th inst., so that with their wives and sweethearts they could attend the great Scottish concert in the Grand Opera House on that evening. The clansmen, and every lover of Scottish wit and humor, will doubtless be there.

—Some time ago Mr. E. Wilkins, who was in business with his father at No. 246 Dundas street, was advised, on account of continued illness, to try the climate of Washington, and he accordingly left London for Seattle, Mr. Wilkins' friends—and they are many—will be pleased to learn that he is now rapidly recovering his wounded health and strength.
—The anniversary services of the Talbot Street Baptist Church, which are to be held to-morrow, are expected to be very interesting. The Rev. E. W. Dadsen, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Woodstock, is expected to preach at both services, and to speak at the platform meeting on that evening. Mr. Dadsen is an ex-president of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec, an evidence of the high esteem in which he is held by his own denomination, and is known as a clear expositor of the word of God and a strong preacher.

—The semi-monthly meeting of the Young Women's Christian Union was held in the "Y" rooms Thursday afternoon.
The meeting opened with an inspiring Bible reading on Psalm, ciii, by one of the members. The monthly reports of the different departments were received, which were most encouraging. The membership of the Young Women's Christian Association had been increased by 28 new members during the months of November and December. The "Y's" have arranged for a lecture course, the lecture to be given by prominent citizens in the rooms, during February, March and April.

—Mr. George A. Anderson, the well-known merchant, was buried yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 197 Oxford street. The funeral was largely attended. Rev. M. P. Talling conducted the services both at the house and at the grave. Interment took place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Deceased was a member of Court Victor and also of the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends. These bodies were represented. About 40 members of the Retail Grocers' Association, headed by W. H. Ferguson, president, walked in the cortege. Messrs. W. McNeil, William Tackaberry, R. Butcher and McNeill acted as pall-bearers. Besides the widow, deceased leaves two children, a boy and a girl.

—The elected officers of this legion for the current term were installed in office in their hall, South London, on Thursday by Past Commander Dr. J. H. McLellan, assisted by Past Commander Dr. R. Ferguson. The names of said officers are as follows: Past commander, S. J. Cahill; commander, J. H.
Justing; vice-commander, Thomas Griffith; recorder, E. N. Curry; treasurer, George Parish; collector, W. A. Westcott; aide, Geo. McDonnell; inside sentinel, G. Robertson; outside sentinel, S. W. Fawcett; trustee for three years, Dr. J. H. McLellan; representatives to Grand Legion, Past Commanders Dr. J. H. McLellan and S. J.
Cahill. The legion has a membership of 77.

Grand Scottish Concert.
Mr. James S. Goldie, of Philadelphia, the inimitable Scottish comedian and character vocalist, will be the chief attraction at the coming celebration of Burns' anniversary in the Grand Opera House on Friday, Jan. 26. Mrs. Cooper has also kindly consented to sing, though she has engagements at Toronto and other places the same week, and the Misses Shand, the charming Scottish dancers and duettists, have also promised to take part, and other well-known citizens will participate, but the programme is not yet completed. The St. Andrew's Society will, however, spare no effort to make this the grandest anniversary yet held.

Lodge British Oak, S. O. E. B. S.
At the last regular meeting of this lodge there was a good attendance of members and visiting brothers, as it was the night for installing the officers for 1894. W.
District Deputy Jos. Hook installed the officers, assisted by Bro. T. P. Hobbs, as high marshal. The following is the staff: W. president, Bro. H. J. Gramlich; W.
V. P., Bro. A. E. Wicks; W. secretary, Bro.
A. Isaac; W. treasurer, Bro. R. H. Cullis; W. chaplain, Bro. T. Wallon; W. first guide, Bro. Geo. Delby; W. second, Bro.
W. Jenkins; W. fifth, Bro. H. Pugsley; W. sixth, Bro. W. Tramm; inside guard, Bro. W. J. Anderson; the third and fourth guides and outside guard being absent. Interesting discussions were indulged in by the visiting brothers and members, all looking to the good of the order. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the W. D. D. and the visiting brethren.

Lodge Princess Beatrice.
At the last regular meeting of Lodge Princess Beatrice, No. 6, D. O. E., there was a good attendance of members, and much interest manifested in the proceedings. After routine business the worthy district deputy, Sister Roughley, installed the officers for 1894, as follows: W. P.
Sister Howe; W. V. P., Sister Annie Fleming; F. and R. S., Bro. A. Isaac; W.
T., Sister F. Lutman; W. C., Sister Trace; W. P. G., Sister M. Watson; W. S. G., Sister Chasley; W. F. G., Sister Jago; W.
F. G., Sister Neary; W. S. G., Sister Knott; L. G., Bro. W. Tramm; second guide and outside guard being absent. After the installation ceremony a surprise was in store for the late worthy president, Sister Emma Anderson, for when taking the past president's chair, she was called to the dais and a neatly-worded address was read by Sister Burton. Sister Horsley then stepped forward and presented a pin, inscribed "D. O. E., 1894." Sister Anderson responded feelingly to the address, although taken completely by surprise. Not satisfied with one presentation Sister F. Lutman, W. treasurer, was called to the platform, when Sister Burton was again read an address, complimenting Sister Lutman on her faithful performance of her duties. Sister Horsley then presented her with a pin similar to the one given to Sister Anderson. Sister Lutman thanked the donors for their gift.
The officers-elect each responded and a vote of thanks was passed to Sister Rough-ley, D.D., for the very impressive manner in which she installed the several officers, being assisted as grand marshal by Bro.
Job Cook. This ended a very pleasant evening and the lodge closed in due form.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Fully Vegetable.
First the bud, then the blossom, then the perfect fruit. These are the several stages of some of the most important ingredients composing the painless and sure cure —Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. The juices of plants greatly concentrated and purified, gums and balsams in harmonious union, all combined give the grand results.
Putnam's Extractor makes no sore spot, does not lay a man up for a week, but goes on quietly doing its work until a perfect cure results. Beware of acid substitutes.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.—South American Rheumatic Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It remedies at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits.
75 cents. Sold by J. CALLARD and all druggists in the Dominion.

Colds, Coughs, Catarrh and Rheumatism cured by using Prof. Smith's Three Keys.
Dose is two drops. Price 25 cents. Sold by all druggists.

Prof. Robertson, the Dominion Dairy Commissioner, who is well known to every dairyman in Canada, will address the Dairymen's Convention at Ingersoll on the "Winter dairy movement" and "Canadian dairy products at the World's Fair." b

Wonderful Enamel Paint.—Blundell Spence & Co., of London, Eng., are the manufacturers of a very superior enamel paint, every color of which will stand the test of hot water and guaranteed not to fade, and will produce exceedingly fine gloss. When used in connection with the celebrated Gold Leaf Substitute paint for decorating purposes very fine and lasting effects can be produced. For sale in all
