ELECTIONS IN FRANCE WERE VERY QUIET LADIES' SUITS

President Takes His Turn in the Line of Waiting Electors.

Paris, April 25.-The polling for nembers of the Chamber of Deputies esterday (Sunday) throughout France and the colonies was marked almost universally by the same calm, apparent indifference, which was characteristic of the campaign. Nothing reliable has yet been obtained to indicate the result. An illustration of the extraordinary number of candidates, it may be stated that several seats each had ten aspirants, while some had more. Avignon made a record with 48 candidates for one seat. Paris sent, it seems, more voters to he polls than it did in 1906, when political passion was higher. President Fallieres took his place in a line of waiting electors at the Madrie of the eighth ward. He was not recognized, tirely and can do all my own work and feel as good as I used to before taken sick. I am positive Doan's Kidney hats, and respectfully greeted him.
