But HOW to Get there!

That is the question. Everybody who can beg, borrow or steal the time for a vacation is going to Colorado this year.

Old Pike's Peak is flashing her wireless to every city and home.

People are dreaming of camping tents in deep ravines and quaint summer homes on the mountainside. Men and women, young and old, are going by the thousands this year. And they all want to know the best way to get there.

There are five routes to Colorado, but the oldest, surest, finest route is

The Hundred-Million-Dollar Road of Luxury

-the road on which your vacation starts when the train starts the road that makes Colorado an overnight trip and brings it within the reach of every home. You have never thought of this before. Colorado has seemed so far away that only the fortunate people of leisure could go. Now the Union Pacific has brought it down to a trip between two suns. And, such a trip! Such dinners! Such beds! Such open carriages, where you sit out-of-doors in the cool shade and Nature unrolls for you such a daylight and moonlight film as was never shown in any theatre!

Sherman gravel; and this train, with its reading-rooms like a club and its lounging parlors—this route on which a hundred million dollars have just been spent for your luxury—this certainly is the only way to go.

This wonderful road of heavy double tracks, of Automatic Electric Block Safety Signals and dustless
