LONDON BEAT BRANTFORD IN ELEVEN INNING BATTLE

Heck and Donovan Engage in Pitching Duel, But Latter Weakens in Eleventh—Bierbauer Featured at Bat— Umpire Daly Had a Bad Day.

Messrs. "Wild Bill" Donovan, Brantford pill dispenser, and Robert "By" Heck, our local sud ball throwist, engaged in a pitching duel at Tecumseh Park Saturday afternoon and tickled the fancy of 2,000 baseball enthusiasts gathered therein. Said duel lasted approximately eleven innings when Cyrus Reidy trickled the winning run over the platter and put London on the fat

Earl Neale Arrives in City and Reports to London Club

Says He Is In Good Condition and Is Ready to Jump Into Game-Has Already Played in 29 Games This Season.

Earl "Oskee" Neale, left fielder of | the London baseball club last season, arrived in London last evening and reported to the local management. 'Oskee" has not changed a bit, and he appears to be in good condition, and ready to jump into the game. He has played 29 games with the Wesleyan College team at Buckhannon, W. Va., already this season, and he says he has been hitting the ball regularly. If this is the case, nothing should keep Neale off the London line-up. Local fans know how he can field, and with Clickenger not going any too good at the present time, Neale's arrival is most opportune. If Earl is able to hit the ball he should finish the season holding down the left field position, He will likely appear in today's game at St. Thomas.

A Strenuous Life. since I left here last fall," he told The have been playing all spring. I think Advertiser this morning. "When I I am in as good shape now as any went to West Virginia I started in man on the London ball club. I have playing football, and when the foot-ball season closed I played basketball.
