SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST

London, March 12.—The fact is encouraging that, within the last two weeks before the City of Boston are just arriving. The manager of the line thinks the steamer can be broken down after sailing and she would be obliged to depend on cable with which she was not very well supplied.

The French officials have as yet produced no evidence of the existence of a plot against the State and life of the Emperor, and the report is now considered a forgery by the Parisians.

The House of Commons, the attendance was unexpectedly large though it was known that the Irish Land Bill was the special order. This topic seems to lose its interest. Gladstone opened the debate by stating that measures for the protection of life and property in Ireland would follow the land bill.
