Rr. Hon. W. E. GLADSTONE, one of the greatest of living statesmen, speaking of the Encyclopædia Britannica, said: "For scientific research and as an educational factor this great work has no equal." Thousands of the leading men of the world think the same thing. But few comparatively could afford to pay from $150 to $200 for the old original Encyclopædia Britannica. The Encyclopædia Britannica Revised and AMENDED contains every article that the old work does, but some of the lengthy articles have been cut down, and many articles written up to 1891, giving an Encyclopædia up to date. Besides, the Encyclopædia Britannica Revised and Amended contains over 4,000 biographies of living and dead statesmen not contained in the old work; even such men as the great Gladstone, Bismarck, Sir John Macdonald, Hon. John Bright, Hon. George Brown, and hundreds of other great men are not mentioned at all in the old nin

This work is only sold with a year's subscription to THE DAILY COLONIST, which may be paid at the rate of $2.50 cash and $2.50 per month for the cloth; $3.20 cash and protection had lost its force. Referring to Egypt, he said it was England's duty to remain beer until the Egyptian Government was strong enough to repel external invasions and quell internal disorder. Where full cash is paid the price will be $28.50 for cloth, $36.50 for sheep, and $40

The above prices do not include the delivery by carrier. Where paper is delivered by carrier, $10 will be deducted from each price, and the usual charge for the paper made by the carrier in the usual way. The Encyclopædia, however, will only be sold to new subscribers where a year's subscription to the paper is guaranteed with the order. Five volumes will be delivered on the signing of the contract, the remaining five when half of total price has been paid.

Sample copies of the various bindings may be seen on application at this office. The city carriers, accredited agents of THE COLONIST, and postmasters in interior towns, only are authorized to make contracts for the paper and the Encyclopædia. For $2.50 cash and $2.50 per month for one year you will receive the very best ency-
