Adventure.

Balcolm and Hughes, commanding schooners Maria and Carmelite, with their crews and the missing men of the Annie C. of the Empress of Japan Sunday, had their share of hard ship and pleasure to reach civilization again. Their pockets were empty, the total of 39 sealers at the close of a being the few cents realized by a pair of rubber boots in Yoko-to by the new arrivals does any special novelty. They are prisoners of Copper Island, taken from them, their sealers and themselves treated little consideration. The Maria was off shore when seized; the Carmelite was taken from the coast. The natives proved kind—the author did not attend to them—and gave their bread and tea as long as they were on the island.

21st the Kotik, the Fur Company's bearing the Governor of Behring led to take the three "prisoners" and the same day the like highest point of the island a schooner some 12 or 13 miles fog, which before had hid her, settled down again upon after, impeded the officers' efforts to locate their prey. WEST KOOTENAY.

Immense Development Work—Progress in the Snow Bird, Honeycomb and Whistler Group.

Splendid Assays—Growth of Kaslo City—Wharf Accommodations Absolutely Necessary.

Work will be continued on the Honeycomb all winter; quarters and provisions have been arranged for, and ore will be shipped through this winter. The other claims on the group will also be worked.
Assays so far are $900 in gold and 103 oz. in silver.

The Lucky Jim claim is to be worked all the year, and ore will be shipped over the new wagon road on sleighs.

At the Freddy Lee an immense amount of work is being done, Jim Wardner, the owner, has completed his corral on the north side of Third street, Kaslo City, and his 200 mules are now on their way down to it with 60,000 pounds of ore for Bonner's Ferry.

The Sloan Star, the Washington, Wellington and White Heather will also be worked through the winter, the ore being shipped over the sleigh road, as this is the cheapest way to transport it while waiting for the Kaslo and Sloan railroad.

The wagon road is now finished for a distance of eleven miles, and will doubtless be completed this fall, as the weather is now clear and fine with plenty of sunshine.

Jim Wardner has his sleigh road to connect with the wagon road below the "Payne" almost laid.
There are now 31 houses completed in Kaslo City and five more are being constructed for, and the Townsite company have now no more property to sell on the north side of the river, the only making efforts with the people to improve the south side in order to keep equal pace with the north. Photographs of the city are being sent to the company's office in Victoria which will show what progress the city has made since April last.

Poor Jim Brennan died on Saturday, the 22nd, of dysentery, and was buried on the 23rd, when an impressive funeral service was presided by Rev. Mr. Smith. Some 500 people followed the coffin to the grave, as evidence of the great respect in which the deceased was held.

The people are not agitating the "large wharf" question, the present one being quite inadequate to the demands upon it.
Last Friday week five steamers lay alongside all together and the accommodation was found utterly insufficient for either craft or freight. A public meeting will probably be called when the citizens will doubtless try to raise the money.

ON PILOT BAY.

Rapid Growth of an Important Industry—The Future of the New Camp.

The transfer of an equal moiety of the Pilot Bay lands to the Smelter Company, in keeping with an agreement entered into by Joshua Davies on behalf of the Davies-Sayward Company and Dr. Hendry, representing the Kootenay Reclamation Company, was consummated on Saturday last.
Each of the above companies own in fee something over 100 acres, the balance of the lands are held as tenants in common.
Some 35 acres, which have been surveyed and are being built upon. The principal buildings completed are the Galena Trading Company's store and the Blanchard and Clark hotels. The Smelter Company reserved two acres on the opposite side of the bay, facing the Smelter Company's wharf, and will, during the winter, when the water of the lake is sufficiently low, build a wharf, 240 feet long, for commercial purposes, and will also erect a brick warehouse for the storage of both free and bonded goods. The capacity of the smelter plant, when completed, will be 100 tons per day, with building and machinery capacity for 300 tons per day when the ore output warrants the expenditure.

There are over 80 men employed at Pilot Bay, the greater number being engaged on the refinery, a building fronting the lake, 245 feet by 120 feet deep. During the winter 50 men are to be employed, principally in placing the machinery. The work will be completed some time during next year in anticipation of transportation facilities for the carrying of coal and coke. The Reduction Company are expecting to be able in the future to dispatch the greater number of the Crown's Nest coal fields, which will afford the most favorable facilities to compete with any reduction company on the continent. The Pilot Bay smelter, when ready to work, will be the most complete plant in Canada, if not on the continent, and will cost upwards of $300,000.

BORN ON THE KOOTENAY.

A Lively Addition to An Immigrants' Party—Novel Attendist Circumstances.

On Wednesday last the steamer Columbia made her usual trip from the Little Dalles to Revelstoke, with some 42 passengers, among whom were three ladies. All went well till the steamer left "Hall's Landing," when Mrs. Leachman, who had a child, suddenly ill, and shortly afterwards it was announced that she had become the mother of a fine female infant. The lady's mother and a friend who were fortunately on board rendered all the necessary assistance, much credit being due to the officers of the steamer for their assiduous attention.

The passengers, among whom were the Lord Bishop of Westminster, decided to raise a subscription and present a testimonial to the infant through the parents in commemoration of the extraordinary event.
They at once raised $70, which was enclosed in a purse and the subjoined testimonial prepared and signed by all.

After his Lordship had christened the infant in the saloon with the name of Columbia Lucia Halliday, the mother was presented with the purse and the following addressed:

To Mrs. Lucia Halliday:

We, the undersigned officers, crew and passengers of the steamer Columbia take this opportunity of expressing the interest in the unusual and, we believe, unprecedented event of a birth on board the ship, while on her trip between the Little Dalles, U. S. A., and Revelstoke, B. C., on the 28th of October, 1892. Associated as we are for the time being as members of one household, sharing the same roof and partaking of the same table, such an event appears irresistibly to that instinct of our nature which, although too often buried beneath a confused heap of conflicting interests and opposing objects, yet teaches us that, after all, we are members of one family joined together in the great brotherhood of mankind.

We hail this child, therefore, as a daughter and sister of us all, and we estimate it our privilege and duty to put on record this token of our good will, and to express our hope that by the blessing of God Almighty, prosperity and happiness may follow this child all the days of her life.

We request her parents to receive on her behalf the accompanying purse to be laid out for her benefit at her destination, and we suggest that in honor of the ship on which she was born, she shall receive in addition to such other names as may be given her that of Columbia.

Capt. J. C. Gore, master; G. W. Caton,

KASLO AND SLOAN.

The Latest Discoveries on Twelve-Mile Creek —Leased Last Week.

The latest discoveries in the Kaslo and Sloan district are those made by Mike Sheik, viz., the Lucky Mike and Firelight on Twelve-Mile Creek, about twelve miles above Kaslo and one-and-a-half miles from the wagon road, and are something which has not been equalled this season.

Four assays made from ore brought down from 2,500 oz. to 3,250 oz. silver to the ton.
The character of the ore is gray copper and peacock, lying in a quartz ledge and porphyry formation. A complete list of the discoveries has as yet not been obtained, Lucky Mike being still up there. As there is considerable snow there it is not probable that development work will be commenced this fall. The property is owned by T. J.
Roodley and Michael Sheik.

THE SONS OF ERIN.

Organize and Make Arrangements for Future Operations—An Enthusiastic Meeting.

The Society to be Non-Political, Non-Secretarian, Benevolent and Social.

In response to a notice appearing in the Colonist and a few post cards sent round to well-known Irish residents of Victoria, there was a well attended gathering of the sons of the Emerald Isle in the Pioneer Hall, last night. The notice was short, and both weather and counter attractions, including "McFee of Dublin," were against the meeting; but despite all these, some 75 Irishmen assembled and resolved to organize.

Shortly after eight o'clock Dr. Sproule was moved to the chair. The doctor briefly stated the object of the meeting. It was not intended, he explained, that the proposed organization of Irishmen should be sectarian or political in its character. While every member would exercise profect freedom of opinion in those matters, as a society they would be absent from its proceedings. He invited the fullest discussion, and predicted thorough unanimity in the cause.

Mr. R. Ackland was unanimously appointed secretary pro tem.

Mr. C. Dell-Smith spoke of the benefits of such an organization as that outlined by the chairman in bringing Irishmen into closer union and acquaintanceship.
Mr. Brethour moved that an Irish association be forthwith formed, non-political and non-sectarian.

Mr. T. M. Jones seconded the motion, which carried without opposition.

On motion of Mr. T. Deasy it was decided to take a list of those who would be interested in the project, and that each person signing pay a nominal fee of 25 cents to cover incidental expenses.

Every person present gave his practical assent by signing the register and paying down the sum named.

Mr. A. St. G. Flint moved that the society be social in its operations, and the Brethour added "beneficiary."

Mr. T. P. Leachman seconded the motion, which was carried by acclamation.

On motion of Mr. Dell-Smith it was decided that the society be open to Irishmen and the direct descendants of Irishmen only.

After many suggestions it was decided to call the organization "The Sons of Erin," and committees were appointed to draft constitution and by-laws, and make other arrangements.

Mr. A. St. G. Flint kindly consented to receive at his office, corner of Broad and Fort streets, the names of persons wishing to join.

The meeting adjourned at the call of the chair.

A DEGRADING SIGHT.

Two Young Women Fight for the Delection of New York Sports.

New York, Nov. 1.—Two women pugil-ists fought a five-round battle, according to ring rules, in a resort in West Orange, last Saturday night. One was the wife of "Swipes," the newboy of New York, and the other was a young brunette, known as "Philadelphia Maggie." The women appeared in short skirts, with armless, tight-fitting jerseys, and wore four-ounce kid gloves. The Philadelphia woman showed up to the best advantage in the first round.
She appeared to have a longer reach and more power in her blows than Mrs. "Swipes," but the latter had more science, and she brought it to bear with great effect in the fourth round on the Philadelphia woman's corselet.

The latter retreated with a seditious blow on where Mrs. "Swipes" diamond eardrops would have been had she been wearing her society toilet. Mrs. "Swipes" knocked her down by punching her in the stomach, and refused to believe the referee's decision that she had fallen in a faint. When she learned that she could have another go at Mrs. "Swipes," she became exceedingly indignant and called the referee a hard name. Then she turned her attention to Mrs. "Swipes" and declared that she was no lady. About 100 well-known New York and Orange sports witnessed the surimage.

ADDRESSES TO THE BISHOP.

The Clergy, Choir and Congregation of Christ Church Tender Testimonials.

A Fitting Present in the Form of a St. Cuthbert's Golden Cross.

Yesterday afternoon the clergy of the diocese waited on His Lordship at the Bishop's Close, and, after the reading of an address by the venerable Archbishop, there was presented on behalf of the clergy a beautiful golden cross, modelled after that found on the body of St. Cuthbert in Dun-elm Cathedral.

In reply the Bishop thanked those present, in the most touching terms, for the expression of good will and kindly feeling shown. The surchart was administered today, when the last official tie will be severed.

The following are the addresses of the clergy, choir and congregation, which have been presented to the Bishop:

THE CLERGY.

To the Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of British Columbia:

RE. REV. FATHER IN GOD:—We, the clergy of your diocese, desire to express our deep regret at your approaching departure.
We feel the severance of a tie so sacred as that which binds together a bishop and his clergy is no light matter. We feel that the reasons for our regret are not only that you will be no more with us, but that you will be no more with us for many years, some of us have received at your hands our commission as priests in the church of God, and all alike have been indebted to you for fatherly guidance, helpful counsel and kindly sympathy.
But although our more immediate relations are to be severed, the ties which bind us to you are not dissolved, the ties which bind us to the memories and affectionate esteem of one who will never be broken. You will always dwell in our hearts and be remembered in our prayers and we are assured that in your retirement you will neither forget nor cease to pray for the diocese over which you have borne rule for three and thirty years. We cannot look forward without the greatest anxiety to the change which your resignation involves and we fully appreciate the solemn responsibility which rests upon ourselves and our lay brethren of the synod in providing for the succession to the high office you have held so long. We know that your prayers will be joined to ours that God may send us in our need a bishop worthy and able to rule over us; bidding you farewell we ask you to accept this pastoral cross and trust that you may wear it in remembrance of us.

FROM THE CHOIR.

To the Right Reverend George Hills, D. D., by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Columbia:

RIGHT REVEREND FATHER IN GOD:—We,
the choir of Christ Church, in the City of Victoria, desire to express our regret at your departure, after an eventful episcopate of 33 years.

We of this generation did not welcome you to the diocese, but it has been our happy privilege to have you in the church in the services of your cathedral.
Though absent from us, we will pray that much happiness may be granted to you in your well-earned rest; and we know that you will be remembered in our prayers.
In rendering the offices of divine worship.

We ask you to accept the accompanying photograph of the choir of this church, who fellow-servants with yourself in the church of God.

Commending you to the care of our Heavenly Father.

We are,
Faithfully yours in the Lord Jesus Christ, (Here follow the names of the choir.)

FOR THE CONGREGATION.

To the Right Rev. George Hills, D. D., Lord Bishop of Columbia: Rector and Dean of Christ Church Cathedral:

YOUR LORDSHIP:—We, the church wardens and church committee of Christ Church Cathedral on behalf of ourselves and the congregation generally, desire to express the deep regret we feel in common with the Anglican communion throughout the Diocese of Columbia, at your resignation of the see and approaching departure for England after an episcopate of thirty-three years.

Having at Christ Church had the greater advantage of your Lordship's personal min-istrations as rector, we especially feel the loss, and we cannot but feel that the hopes that you may be spared to enjoy many years of peaceful retirement and a rest as well earned as is to you greatly needed.

Although absent from us your Lordship will not, we hope, need to be assured of our continued love and esteem, and we doubt not amid other surroundings you will still feel a warm interest in the welfare of the diocese generally and in this congregation in particular, over which you have so long and faithfully presided.

Partings are ever painful, but your Lordship should find great consolation in the thought that each person signing pay a nominal fee of 25 cents to cover incidental expenses.

down the sum named.

Mr. A. St. G. Flint moved that the so-
Brethour added "beneficiary."

Mr. T. P. Leachman seconded the motion,
which was carried by acclamation.

only.

arrangements.

Mr. A. St. G. Flint kindly consented to

FROM ST. PAUL'S, NANAIMO.

To the Rt. Rev. George Hills, D. D., Lord
Bishop of Columbia:

We, the rector, church wardens and church committee on behalf of the parishioners of St. Paul's, Nanaimo, one of the oldest parishes in this diocese, desire to express our great regret at the loss we are about to experience in your Lordship's departure from this province.

We fully appreciate and recognize the many instances of your Lordship's kindness and we do not doubt that your interest in us will not cease because you are far removed from us.

We shall long remember with happiness and gratitude the visits you have paid to our parish from time to time, and the genial and hearty way in which you have on those occasions entered into our pursuits, and the encouragement you have given to all our efforts to further the progress and extension of the church in this district.

We pray that God Almighty may be pleased to grant you many years of health, and that you may seek the repose of which
