

Vapo-Resolene
Established 1879
Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Cough, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria
Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics
Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy to cure disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach?
It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried over the diseased surface with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.
Those of a consumptive tendency find immediate relief from coughs or inflamed conditions of the throat.
Sold by druggists.

WATFORD, DEC. 6, 1907.
Will Grain Be Cheaper.
It begins to look as if the prices for feed stuffs in Ontario are coming down to a basis that doesn't mean prohibition to the ordinary farmer. With the possibility of securing this feed wheat, at Ontario mills, there is the question of American corn, that is coming in freely, and the declining prices in barley and oats.

Added to this there must be reckoned the fact that thousands of cattle have been sold by the farmers to go to the western ranches and to the Middle States. A large run of hogs has gone off to the market in only fair condition, while few pigs are being held for spring feeding. The crop of young pigs has been lessened in many ways. In many parts of the country no care was taken to ensure the safety of the litters. It seems to be within the mark to estimate a falling off of over one-third the usual supply of hogs for the spring markets, and the failure to keep breeding stock will no doubt as largely discount the summer marketings. Old horses have been got rid of in many places. All these facts demonstrate the economy in feed that has been made in view of high prices.

A lowering of the price of barley will have a tendency to send some of this grain to the feed lots also. This, with the increased supply of available grains and the decreased supply of stock on the farms, ought to figure out.

The farmers are thinking out profitable feeding rations as never before.

It Quiets the Cough
This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about this.

They are beginning to realize that a poor animal is a bad investment at any price. If the present situation in the feeding world produces the desired result of emphasizing the superiority of keeping high grade animals and pure bred sires, it will have well served its purpose. Meanwhile another lesson that has to be learned over and over again, is for the farmer to sell his commodities when they are fashionable. Those who hold on for higher prices will also exist, but when grain or any produce gets at a reasonable figure, it is wise to cash in.—World.

Increased Cost of Living.
There is not a housewife in town who will not at the present time state that the cost of living in this town has increased during the last 12 months. Why? If the comparison were to be made between the fall of 1907 and that of 1906 the fact of an increase would rapidly be apparent. The contrast of prices of the staples of modern life in those two years shows at a glance that there has been a substantial advance. Or the other hand a table of retail prices compiled from the lists of reputable firms does not reveal that any general increase has taken place in 1907 as compared with 1906, except in regard to butter, cheese and also eggs, particularly the latter. In so far as the majority of meats are concerned, the retail figures are identical. True, milk has advanced in price, yet perhaps it is in respect to butter, cheese and eggs, that the greatest grumblings—if the word may be used—are heard.

THE CHARM OF BEAUTY.
Nothing of More Value to Women.
The glory and satisfaction of beautiful womanhood can be known only to those possessing the unlimited advantages of health.
No weak women can be happy or enjoy half the pleasures of life. Pallid cheeks, sunken eyes, exhausted nerves, all tell of a terrible struggle to keep up.
What the weak women needs is Ferrozone; it renews, restores and vitalizes instantly—it's a "woman's remedy"—that's why.
Ferrozone makes women strong, plump and healthy because it contains lots of nutriment, the kind that forms muscle, sinew, bone and nerve.
Vitalizing blood courses through the body making delightful color, happy spirits, true womanly strength.
To look well, to feel well, to enjoy the unlimited advantages of robust bounding health use Ferrozone; sold by all dealers in 50c boxes, and refuse a substitute.

Not a Picnic.
A certain class of newspaper men assert that the farmer is the most independent man on earth, and has nothing to do but to enjoy life. That when the winter comes and the blizzard's on the wing he roasts his feet in the oven and reads the local newspapers and the only thing that disturbs him is a call three times a day to a banquet of mince pie and other luxuries. It is a mistake. The industrious farmer begins work before the sun thinks of getting up. With his soul shrouded in gloom he proceeds to build a fire with a sledge hammer. He then takes a lantern and shovels his way to the barn and feeds the hogs. It is then time to feed the newly-arrived calf which seems to delight in butting a pail of milk over the tiller of soil until he only needs to pass for a package of oleomargarine. He crawls through a barb wire fence and digs the hay out of the snow, feeds the cows, cleans the stable, gathers up the frozen chicks, chases a stray hog worth twenty-five cents for four miles and does not catch it, freezes his fingers, gets kicked by a one-eyed mule, and when the gloaming comes and quietness broods over all the earth he has a single half hour to meditate and wonders how he will pay his taxes.

New System of Roadmaking in Kent.
Quite an interesting innovation in road-making has been introduced in the County of Kent, where a new road engine, to which is attached five cars, has been put to work on the improvements which are being made on the county road. The cars are supposed to carry five wagon loads each, the entire outfit therefore hauling the same load as twenty-five wagons. This road train will make two trips a day which will keep the three crushers busy to provide the necessary loads. The cars are so constructed that by the use of a crank an aperture is opened in the bottom to allow the emptying of the cars in a manner which will distribute the material evenly on the roadbed.
A man will travel with the outfit to attend to the distribution. The wheels of the wagon are 14 inches in width, and are so arranged that they are not in line and will serve to further harden the road by rolling it on their trips. The outfit was purchased from the J. I. Case Company. Formerly a large number of teams were used and men were engaged to spread the material. By the new process the material is spread and the number of men employed is decreased. The new outfit is supposed to cut all the expenditure by about $25 a day.—London Advertiser.

Bread or Pastry.
Beaver Flour is the best for Pastry—just as it is best for Bread.
Beaver Flour
is both a "Spring Wheat" and a "Winter Wheat" Flour. It is a blend of Manitoba Spring Wheat in just the exact proportions of each to make the whitest, most nutritious Bread—and the lightest, most inviting, most toothsome Cake, Pies and Pastry. Economical, to say the least.

BEER MAKES BLOOD
MALT
has certain food-elements which the body can transform into healthy blood quickly and with the least digestive effort.
HOPS
contain a medicinal principle which tones the nerves without reaction, and so supplies nervous energy and saves it as well.
BEER
as brewed in Ontario is made from choicest Ontario barley malt, selected hops, and the purest of water, dealt with under conditions which insure purity and quality.
Beer with meals is good for 997 people out of every thousand—and is especially good for women. Ask your own doctor about it—beer is probably good for you.

BEER is a term which covers lager, ale, porter, and stout; and in the practice of Ontario brewers, implies beverages made under most hygienic conditions from Ontario barley (the best in the world) malt, hops, and pure water.

Many housewives think it cheaper to buy than to bake. That is because their baking isn't successful every time. Their failures run the cost up. Get Royal Household Flour and follow directions. The result will be light, wholesome bread or pastry every time. You pay a few cents more for Royal Household, but those few cents buy certainty and purity. Your grocer can supply you.
