

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

The names of all persons desirous of being admitted as members of the Society shall be proposed by a member, and handed into the Secretary, in writing for submission to the Executive, who will report thereon at the following regular meeting.

Section 2.—Honorary membership shall be complimentary only, and without fee.

ARTICLE IV.—OFFICERS.

The officers of the Society shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, who, with six members elected from the Society, shall form an Executive Committee, to control and provide for the general interests of the Society. Five members of this Executive shall constitute a quorum.

The President and Secretary shall be ex-officio members of all committees.

ARTICLE V.—MEETINGS.

The Society shall hold regular meetings of its members, and also occasional open meetings, when the public shall be invited.

ARTICLE VI.—FEES.

Each member shall pay an annual fee of fifty cents. Any member whose fee remains unpaid at the meeting previous to the annual meeting shall not be entitled to a vote at said annual meeting.

ARTICLE VII.—FEDERATION.

This Society may federate with other Societies of like purpose, or which offer specific advantages, if a majority vote of a regular meeting shall so decide, on a recommendation from the Executive.

ARTICLE VIII.—AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any annual meeting; notice of proposed amendment or alteration having been handed in to the Executive in writing one month previous to the annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX.—POLICY.

Neither politics nor religious denomination shall be recognized in the business or membership of this Society, loyalty and patriotism being alone recognized and required.
