

CHAPTER II.

Rome opposed to printing and freedom of the press. — The Council of Lateran. — Prohibited books. — Booksellers subjected to penalties and restrictions. — Penalty of "excommunication" for reading "heretical" books, 225

CHAPTER III.

Encyclical letter of Pope Gregory XVI. — Arrogated power of the priesthood. — Rome persecutes beyond the grave. — Political agents of the Papacy in America. — Blighting effects of Popery. — History of the interdict of Venice fulminated by Pope Paul V., 234

CHAPTER IV.

The Pope and the sword. — The claim of the Romish church to infallibility. — Preposterous claims of the Pope. — Bull against Queen Elizabeth. — Leo III. — "Ceremonies of the Holy Roman Church." — Romanism the same now as ever, 254

CHAPTER V.

Bishop England's authority. — The "Host." — Catholic Telegraph, of Cincinnati, denounces republicanism. — Bishop Flaget, of Kentucky, against our republican government. — The canon laws, 265

CHAPTER VI.

The Eternal City. — The effects of Romanism and Protestantism contrasted. — Luther. — America is Bible ground. — The Jesuits and state politics. — Spies. — The silent press. — America the last battle-field of Popery, 273

THE AMERICAN NAVY.

CHAPTER I.

Foreign navies. — Navy Retiring Board. — Noble daring of Lieut. Rolando. — Pierce and Dobbin. — Affray between Capt. Perry and Heath. — Shubrick, 280

CHAPTER II.

Stribling and Diaboleto. — Commodore Hull. — Pendegrast's inefficiency, 295

CHAPTER III.

Commodore Perry. — Japan expedition. — Captains Graham, Inman, and Levy. — Abolishment of flogging in the navy. — Conduct of Pierce, 305

CHAPTER IV.

Cost of a naval education. — Corruption. — Mallory, a foreigner, aims to destroy the navy. — Insufficiency of the bureaus. — Notes. — Great American Battle. — Lieutenant Riel, 317

Heroic a Montic action.
and C

Convent
Michel
— Mea
Decree
— Ma
Maria

France, tion. —
can Se Cromw
chianl mind.

Ferdinar
en. — and fa father McPh expose
— Con
nuns,

A

Papists o order.
Frank