

Greatly consoled by this sudden decision of mind, Miss de Chauvigny retired to rest with a light heart.

The next morning at sunrise, Miss de Chauvigny was on her way to the Abbey, where, after obtaining immediate admittance, she wrote home, requesting her parents' leave to stay there a few days.

