THE CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL.

THE D. A. FONES Co., Ld.,

PUBLISHERS,

BEETON, ONTARIO, APRIL 11, 1888

BUSINESS DEPARTME

Observe our special offer of sections, in large lots, as given in our advt. columns.

We can supply 250 envelopes and 250 note heads, each with your name and business neatly printed on the corner for one dollar. The paper is of good quality, the envelopes are in boxes of 250 and we pay the postage. At this writing we have executed nearly three hundred orders, and have in many cases been favored with repeat orders for friends. Cash should accompany order and copy be plainly written.

Remember that we are now able to furnish you with Barnes' Foot Power Machines, at the very lowest figures obtainable, and we shall be glad to have your orders. One customer, who has had one of the combined machines for about three months, says that if another could not be obtained, he would not part with his machine for $200. The complete machine cost him $60.

CIRCULARS RECEIVED.

S. W. Morrison, Oxford, Pa., sends us a note-size circular with prices of Carniolan Queens, bees by the pound, etc.

R. H. Schmidt, Caroline, Shawano Co., Wis., greets us with a three-page folder giving prices of hives, extractors, smokers, etc.

George A. Wright, Glenwood, Pa., advertises thoroughbred poultry and Italian bees, in a circular just received.

J. & R. H. Myers, Stratford, Ont., have had printed at this office, a neat 12-page price list of bees, queens, hives, foundations and supplies generally.

D. G. Edmiston, Adrian, Mich., fills up a ten page folder with advertisements of articles including fruit and ornamental trees, grape vines, small fruit plants, beekeepers' supplies,

The seventh annual circular and price list of beckeepers' supplies for the season of 1888, issued by Wm. H. Bright, Mazeppa, Wabash Co., Minn., lies on our table.

E. L. Goold & Co., of Brantford, send for inspection their 20-page catalogue of beekeepers' supplies. It contains full descriptions of the goods they manufacture.

"Specialties" is the title of the 1888 catalogue just received from A. O. Crawford, Co. Weymouth, Mass. It covers 18 pages and includes full varieties of honey labels, etc. Comb honey packages are one of the principal things, and the prices are very low.

Dr. G. L. Tinker, New Philadelphia, O., who prides himself, and justly, upon those beautiful white poplar and basswood sections he turns out, has forwarded us his 16-page catalogue for 1888; also his business card printed on "white poplar.'
