Nov. 12th. Remember the date.

Mr. Bradley is again in possession of the Stamp Reporter. It is quite readable this month, although small.

1 inch 4 times for 50c—same copy,

New South Wales is to blame for the recent defeat of the Australian Confederation Bill. All the other colonies gave the bill overwhelming majorities, and so, in fact, did N. S. W., but to carry, its minor majority must be 100,000 whereas it was less than 75,000, so we are still to be supplied with six distinct colonial issues from the island continent.
