The president, Dr. Richardson of Toronto, occupied his position with credit. We think he was unfortunate in the choice of a subject for his address. Modern bacteriology is not a subject that can be handled easily, even by an expert, to the satisfaction of a general professional audience. One of the most noticeable features of the meeting was the presence of a number of prominent American physicians and surgeons. Their contributions contributed not a little to the scientific success of the meeting.

A UNIQUE WORK ON CANADIAN TOPICS.

Mr. Erastus Wiman, President of the Canadian Club, writes as follows:—

- "It is the intention of certain members of the Canadian Club, in New York, to issue, in the form of a beautiful book, the papers which have been delivered before the Club during the past winter by prominent parties, together with those which are to be delivered during the remainder of the season.
- "These papers will include a speech on 'Commercial Union,' by the Hon. Benjamin Butterwork, member of Congress, who is said to be one of the most eloquent men of that body. A remarkable production by Prof. Goldwin Smith on 'The Schism in the Anglo-Saxon Race.' A paper by Dr. Grant of the Queen's University on 'Canada First.' One by J. W. Bengough, editor of Toronto Grip. By Mr. LeMoine of Quebec, on 'The Heroines of New France.' By J. A. Fraser, 'An Artist's Experience in the Canadian Rockies.' By Edmund Collins, on 'The Future of Canada.' By Professor G. D. Roberts, of King's College. By George Stewart, jr., of Quebec. By the Rev. Dr. Eccleston, on 'The Canadian North-West.' By John McDougall, on 'The Minerals of Canada.' And by the editor, G. M. Fairchild, jr., on 'The History of the Canadian Club.' The work will also include extracts from the speeches and letters of the President.
 - "The book is to be issued in beautiful style, at $1 per copy.
- "A great many Canadians will doubtless desire to possess themselves of this rare compilation, and, by purchasing copies, indicate the interest which is manifested throughout Canada in the attempt of the Canadian Club to lay before Americans the resources, advantages and attractions of their native country.
- "Parties desirous of obtaining copies can do so by enclosing the price of the book to James Ross, Canadian Club, 12 East 29th Street, New York."
