

city long clear is firmer and is selling at 10 to 11c, according to size of lot. There are almost no hams to be had. Lard dull and nominal. Dressed hogs have been coming in more freely farmers evidently wishing to take advantage of present high price.

SALT—Quotations of this article have not undergone any change for some weeks. Fair parcels are moving at our printed rates. Liverpool coarse 60 to 70c; Canadian $1.25 to $1.40; Eureka per 56 lbs. 64 to 70c; Washington per 50 lbs. 50 to 52c. Rices dairy 50c.

WOOL—In fleece there is some enquiry from the States but we have not heard of any sales. American buyers consider our rates too high. A fair amount of pulled wools and low fleeces is selling to the mills and there seems to be a better feeling all around.
