The tax rate for Newmarket will likely be 20 mills, the same as last year. Estimates for 1918 were completed for submission to the town council on July 6th, and, although the county rate is higher, an increase for the town rate is not expected.

The negotiations which have been pending for the re-funding of the $5,000,000 of the funded debt of the Twin City Rapid Transit Company, maturing in January next, have been brought to a successful issue. The total funded debt of the company is $20,263,000.
