

Coleman's Clothes for Men

Are always Well-Made — Made-to-Measure
Correct in Style

A COLEMAN 1912 SUIT

The correct English style in men's clothes runs to the small—neat and tasty. We make up the suit, however, to meet the customer's own wishes.

Materials are simple and plainer in designs. Greys in different shades and effects are very popular.

Our prices range from $22.50 to $40.00. When ordering say about what price you would like to go. Samples will be sent, self-measuring chart and all particulars how to order by mail.

Our Carlyle Blue Serge Suit, made-to-measure, at $22.50 and finished with that pedigree of completeness that marks all Coleman's clothes, has no parallel in value anywhere.
