

to the Columbian edition of their Microscope Catalogue. It shows quite a reduction in the price of the different kinds of microscopes and some of the accessories.

The Australian edition of Mr. Welford's Photo. Review of Reviews is to hand, and is even more interesting than the London edition, as it contains a well written wealth of Australian articles and news, besides the regular matter found in the London issue.

A handsome catalogue has just been issued by the Rochester Camera Mfg Co., of Rochester, containing an illustrated description of the full line of Photographic Cameras and apparatus, manufactured by them. All interested in photography should have one.

Jonathan Fallowfield is one of Englands largest and best known dealers in Photographic stock. Fallowfield's Remembrances and Traveller, is a most complete catalogue, which has been sent out to all interested in photography for the past seven years, and takes the place of a traveller; a late one just received shows Mr. Fallowfield to keep in stock almost every conceivable thing of use to photographers.

The May number of The Canadian Magazine is, in the variety and interest of its articles, among the best of the monthlies, and the illustrations are numerous and excellent. The Canadian Magazine announces that amongst early contributors will be Her Excellency, the Countess of Aberdeen, and several of the most prominent public men of Canada. The magazine is published by The Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., Toronto. $2.50 per annum.

The Art Amateur for May, is veritably a work of art. The two colored plates with this issue, "Pansies," and "Mischievous Kittens," are extremely well done. The reading matter, by well known writers, is interesting and instructive. The department under the heading of 'My Note Book,' which is taken care of by the editor and publisher, Mr. Montague Marks, is especially bright and well written, and shows him to be well versed in all matters pertaining to art. We notice that the Art Amateur fac-simile color studies, which are already used freely as models in leading private schools and colleges of the country, have been introduced into the Chicago High Schools. This very high grade Art Journal, can be ordered direct from the publisher, from your news dealer, or clubbed with the CANADIAN PHOTOGRAPHIC JOURNAL.

A very handy and complete descriptive price list, has just been issued by John Carbutt, a copy of which is before us. It gives a full list, with the lately reduced prices of the well known Carbutt plates and specialties. In regard to reduction in price Mr. Carbutt says: Taking into consideration the fact that the cost of the principal raw materials used in the manufacture of dry plates has fallen considerably within the past year and through the introduction of improved machinery in all processes, our capacity has been wonderfully increased, we have decided to make another, and we believe final, general reduction in the price of Dry Plates, which we herewith present to our patrons, trusting that they will appreciate our desire to make their interests identical with the Keystone Plates.

The photograph of a boy never looks like him, because no one ever saw a boy look as clean as he is in a photograph.
