

the story, Mr. Sharp continued the use of the Pink Pills until he had taken four-teen boxes, by which time he had com-pletely recovered and is now as well as ever he was, and has lost all the asthma trouble as well. He is now able to do a hard day's work, and is loud in his praises of Dr. Williams' wonderful Pink Pills. As the reporter was leaving a Mr. Stark, an intelligent farmer who lives close by, called, and verified all that Mr. Sharp had said, and referred the reporter to others in the neighborhood who knew the circumstances as well. One who had never seen Mr. Sharpe before would not think, looking at him to-day, that he had come through the ordeal he has, as he seems the very picture of health and both he and Mrs. Sharpe attribute the whole cure to Pink Pills.

WATSON, ARMINGTON & CO., PUBLIC CONFIDENCE

nce secured is of priceless value to a store. It is the mainspring of success, and attracts a patronage (not spasmodic) but steady and continuous. We think we have won the confidence and favor of the people of Winnipeg in our effort to supply them with judiciously selected merchandise, desirable and reliable in character, which we always sell at prices less than are often quoted on goods of questionable age and style.

When we think a reduction of prices necessary to move certain merchandise quickly, we take the loss cheerfully and consider the advertising gained through the low prices our profit.

We have made some of these reductions in the differ-ent departments and will continue it for two weeks only. It will be your loss if you do not avail yourself of this Golden Opportunity.

Our stock is full of novelties for the holidays. Another lot of silks for evening wear just in, and at rock bottom prices.

Keep the Works in good order. W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont., January 15, 1896. DEAR SIR,--Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system I have ever used. Life is as the timepiece that humanity are many of its works. A fine article of foreign and what is the result--at first, on the right difference the obstruction grows, the in slight way you a greater, until at last, what could be remedied with little trouble, in the beginning, now require so it is in human life--a slight detour from the straight path, and it grows and increases, until it is not only a nuisance, but a danger. I have been cured with little trouble, and I advise my friends to get a box of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
