Notes From St. Eustache.

Our bazaar is over and it was a grand success; we are full of gratitude to our good friends who so generously helped us and we desire to thank them most heartily. Having made $660 we are more than satisfied; for this happy result we are principally indebted to our three candidates, of whom Mademoiselle Rosalie Genthon, of St. Boniface, secured the largest number of votes. An excellent supper was provided under the Monsieur Rabosson agreeab le superintendency of Mrs. Wm. Burke. We hope our friends from a distance, who so kindly came to our aid, passed pleasant evenings; it will be long before we forget the happiness we had in receiving them.

The Ladies Aid Society Organize for the Winter's Work.

At High Mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday Rev. Father Cherrier announced that the members of the Ladies' Aid and Altar Society were requested to meet that evening to elect officers and perfect their organization for the winter's work. He said the devoted members of this society have done a great deal of good in past years, particularly in the way of providing clothing for poor children, so that they may attend school. "I now again call upon you to resume your work, for word has been brought me that many children now attending our school are badly in need of assistance and unless something is done towards giving them better clothes they will have to discontinue their attendance. I know that this announcement will be more than sufficient to appeal to your charitable and loving hearts and I shall expect to see a good attendance."

The expectations of the worthy pastor were fully realized and a most encouraging and promising meeting was held. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. Bernhardt; vice-president; Mrs. M. Kelly; treasurer, Mrs. P. Klinkhammer; secretary, Miss Celia

It was only sixty years ago that prople began to settle in Milwaukee. Solomon Juneau lived here almost alone from 1818 to 1833. In 1846 Milwaukee was incorporated as a city. Up to that date and for some time after, it was more natve American in the composition of its population than any New England village of to-day. But Juneau, the pioneer, was chosen its first mayor.
