

provide, in addition to the basic documents, proof that you possess the necessary professional qualifications. You must also prove that you work for a Canadian company by providing a letter on company stationery. The letter must state:

- your job title;
- your duties;
- the specific customer and contract on which you will be working;
- the fee arrangements; and
- the starting/ending dates of the contract work.

Some professionals also need a professional identity card from the Directorate General of Professions of the Secretaría de Educación Pública (SEP) (Secretariat of Public Education) before practising in regulated occupations.

How do you get to?

¿Cómo llego a?

I want to go to...

Quiero ir a...

Intra-Company Transferees

Intra-company transferees are executives, managers and staff with specialized knowledge who are employed by a Canadian company. They can be transferred to a Mexican branch, subsidiary or affiliate office for up to seven years. In this case, you must provide, in addition to the basic documents, the following documentation:

- proof that you have been employed with the Canadian company for at least one year;
- a description of your qualifications;
- your current and proposed positions; and
- a detailed outline of the purpose and length of stay.

If the transferee stays longer than two consecutive years, then a residency application or immigrant visa — Forma Migratoria-2 (FM-2) — is required. Applications must be submitted by the employer in Mexico directly to the Secretaría de Gobernación (Secretariat of the Interior).