

Arrangements have been made for the Venezuelan Foreign Minister, Dr. Falcon Briceno, and Mr. Green to exchange greetings in an inaugural hook-up of amateur radio stations. This exchange of greetings will take place on Wednesday, November 22, at 4:30 p.m. EST. Radio amateurs in Canada and in Venezuela will be able to tune in on this exchange of greetings on 14.175-14.200 megacycles. Dr. Falcon will transmit from station YV-5AJ of the Venezuelan Radio Club, and Mr. Green will transmit from station VE3-ATU which is operated by Captain S.T. Chisholm, a member of the Ottawa Amateur Radio Club. The Ambassador of Venezuela in Canada, His Excellency Dr. Manuel R. Egana, will exchange greetings with the Canadian Charge d'Affaires in Venezuela, A. D. Ross.
