

Administrative

After numerous attempts to contact the only other individual who had been identified as having been involved in the investigation, the following information was obtained:

In the summer of 1988, the individual in question was contacted by the FBI regarding the investigation. The individual stated that he had no recollection of the investigation and that he had never been involved in any way. The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way.

The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way. The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way. The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way.

The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way. The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way. The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way.

The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way. The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way. The individual stated that he had never been involved in any way.