

8. How many Indian student graduates trained as aforesaid now have full-time employment (a) in the Yukon, and (b) elsewhere?

Mr. Forest, Parliamentary Secretary to the President of the Privy Council, presented,—Returns to the foregoing Orders.

Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, as reported with amendments from the Standing Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs was again considered at the Report Stage;

Whereupon, the House resumed debate on the motion of Mr. Laprise, seconded by Mr. Dionne,—That Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, be amended by deleting paragraph (f) of subsection 6 of clause 18 on page 44 and substituting therefor:

“(f) “therapeutic abortion committee” for any hospital means a committee, comprised of not less than two qualified medical practitioners and one gynaecologist, appointed by the board of that hospital and approved by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the province concerned, for the purpose of considering and determining questions relating to terminations of pregnancy within that hospital.”

After further debate, the question being put on the said motion, pursuant to section 11 of Standing Order 75, a recorded division was deferred.

Mr. Dinsdale, seconded by Mr. McKinley, moved,—That Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the Customs Tariff and the National Defence Act, be amended by deleting paragraph (f) of sub-section 6 in clause 18 on page 44 and substituting therefor:

“(f) “therapeutic abortion committee” for any hospital means a committee comprised of not less than four members, two of whom shall be qualified medical practitioners and one a psychiatrist appointed by the board of that hospital, as well as a clergyman, or spiritual advisor where this is requested by the patient for the purpose of considering and determining questions relating to terminations of pregnancy within that hospital.”

After debate thereon, the question being put on the said motion, pursuant to section 11 of Standing Order 75 a recorded division was deferred.

And the question being put on the motion of Mr. Laprise, seconded by Mr. Dionne,—That Bill C-150, An Act to amend the Criminal Code, the Parole Act, the Penitentiary Act, the Prisons and Reformatories Act and to make certain consequential amendments to the Combines Investigation Act, the
