

letter, even with the address and name cut off. We sympathise with the afflicted and would sooner forego profit to ourselves than have our patients be subject to the slightest suspicion. For this purpose we have our office arranged so that there is no likelihood of one patient being seen by another, and we regard all communications as sacred as the confessional. Parties from a distance wishing to consult should write beforehand, and have an hour arranged so as not to be disappointed, as the Doctor is sometimes from home. When he intends visiting any town or city it will be announced in the local papers, stating when and where he is to be seen.

Advice can be given by letter free, and all letters will be cheerfully and promptly answered and medicine expressed to any part of the Dominion. Our Post Office address is J. BELL SIMPSON & Co., DRAWER 91, P. O., HAMILTON, ONT.

The Specific and Tonic Pills are for sale by all respectable druggists, or will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.60 for a box of each, or $7.60 for six boxes of each, securely wrapped from observation.
