

intimate

l induce-ent and
had not nto many ts which acter of a pinion on rrow's, I
ore, after
n of some
entific ob-
uscript to ry of my
ing its ap-
ose kind-
hrow my-

F. L.

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

Departure from England . . . . . page 1

CHAPTER II.

Expedition to examine Hurd's Channel—Anchor within it—Farther examination—Gore Bay discovered—Red snow—Dangers of Hurd's Channel—Enter a large inlet—Captain Parry's absence in boats—He meets with Natives—Captain Parry's second absence and return—Approach of winter—Ships stopped by young ice—Cut into, and take winter-quarters . . . . . 41

CHAPTER III.

Ships take their winter quarters—Theatricals—The School—Observatory built—Foxes—Shortest day—Christmas—The Aurora—New year—Arctic fox—Wine frozen—Arrival of the Eskimaux, and a pack of wolves—Snow houses—Interior arrangement—Tattooing—Honesty of the natives—Frost bites—Luxuries—Manner of sewing—Boldness of the wolves—Music—Arnalooa . . . . . 62

CHAPTER IV.

Wolf caught—The snuff-box—Seals caught—Voracious feeding—The marines—Okotook and Iligliak—An eclipse—Ayookitt—Walrus killed—The thirteenth wolf killed—Charts obtained—Journey across the island—A dance—Kettle and the spirit—Beef stolen . . . . . 100

CHAPTER V.

Natives change their stations—Gluttony—Deserted huts—The first thaw—Arrival of birds—Land expedition—Snow blindness—Snow-storm—Return to the ships—Death of a seaman—Deer are seen—Singular phenomenon—Canal completed—The gardens—Appearance of the island—Death of two seamen—Ice breaks up, and we leave the island . . . . . 129

CHAPTER VI.

Leave Winter Island—Dangerous navigation—The coast—Barrow River—Walrus killed—New natives—Land at Igloodik—Tents—Inhabitants—Bad weather—Hospitality of natives—