

ing scenes in the ex-Kaiser's life that might happen at Ottawa. These could easily be given to the people of the world in moving-pictures, and what a gigantic revenue might continue to pour in'therefrom ! ! !

Understand the world-renowned Premier, David Lloyd George, gives the Canadians the credit of being one of the main barriers in blocking the German hordes from reaching the Channel Ports, and therefore there should be something special coming to them.

The European countries are likely well stocked with war and other relics from the mediaeval ages, and there is plenty of room here, so would like to hear of you making an energetic request to bring the ex-Kaiser to Canada, the largest territory in the British domains, and I believe the biggest granary of the Empire.

Had science been as advanced during Biblical history as it is now and all the important acts recorded and given to the world to-day in moving pictures I wouldn't attempt to describe the result.
