Cattle Prices Sag Under Weight of Heavy Deliveries.

AT UNION STOCK YARDS

Market Was Practically Dead and Begging for Buyers Supply Too Big.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards on Wednesday were liberal—75 carloads—872 cattle, 1499 nogs, 945 sheep and lambs and 93 calves.

The cattle trade on vecinesday was worse than the two p.eced.ng days, simply because the country is seni.ng in a lot of cattle that are not need.d, unless they are prepared to take about 75c per cwt. less than they were get ing a week of ten days ago. The market was practically dead, as we saw seilers begging for buyers to go and look at their cattle and make them an ofter. The supp.y ocattle in nearly every class was far greater than the demand, and, of course, the buyers had it all their own way for once in a long time E en the canner and cutter classes, which have as a full until this week held fairly strong at steady prices, have declined from 10c to 40c per chan any other place on the continent quality in all classes considered.

The stocker and feeder classes were reported as being about steady but we did not see any particular activity, even in these classes.

In the milker and springer class trade in these classes.

In the milker and springer class trade was reported slow and values from $5 to $10 per head lower.

Veal calves were slow of sale; in fact, there is little demand for any, excepting good to choice veals, and they, too, are lower in value. Grass calves are not wanted.

Trade on the sheep and lamb market was also inclined to be dull; but this was caused by the poorer quality offered, as there were many coarse, heavy lambs on sale, but prices are tending downward.

Hogs, of which there was only a moderate delivery, were reported about steady in value.

Butchers* Cattle.

Good to choice. $7.25 to $7.50; medium to good, $6.75 to $7; common to medium, $6 to $6,25; common eastern butchers' steers and heifers at $5 to $5.75; choice cows, $6.25 to $6.50; good cows, $5 50 to $5.75; medium cows, $5 to $5.25; common cows, $4.50 to $5; canners and cutters, $3.50 to $4.25; bulls, $4.50 to $6.50.
