FIFTH WEEK.

FOREGROUNDS AND BACKGROUNDS.

There are workers who see and work only in the foreground of things: the party politicians, the little parochial men, the laborers.

And there are those whose eyes are on the far horizon: the preachers of ideals, the artists, the makers of movements.

Both classes are apt to overbalance: the supreme need is their synthesis.

Thus give the laborer an Ideal, and give the idealist Work, and both will be nearer Truth.
