

On some petrifications in Fife,	211
Observations on Pope's works,	213
Azania, a tale, concluded,	220
Intelligence respecting arts,	224
A proposal for victualling the navy, &c.	225
Authentic particulars respecting Thomson,	235
The will,	239
On rearing oak woods in Scotland,	242
Account of an ancient stone coffin,	246
Reflections of Frederick the Great,	248
Accounts of the court of the prets,	252
Intelligence respecting arts,	257
On trade and manufactures,	260
Parliamentary proceedings,	257
Anecdotes,	263
To correspondents,	264
Miscellaneous remarks on the political progress of Great Britain,	265
Remarks on grammar,	271
Exercises in practical grammar,	274
On the circular buildings called duns in Scotland,	282
Elevation of Dun-agglesag in Ross-shire,	288
Philosophical geography,	289
Peter, a tale,	297
To correspondents,	304
Miscellaneous remarks on the political progress of Great Britain,	305
Novum organum politicum,	312
Philosophical geography,	321
Reflections of Frederick the Great,	328
Intelligence respecting arts,	330
Parliamentary proceedings on the corn bill,	333
To correspondents,	336
Historical chronicle at the end,

POETRY.

A song, Resolv'd said the poet,	33	A picture too true,	179
On the approach of winter,	ib.	Ode for a club, Dec. 31. 1791,	217
The bird's nest,	34	A fable,	218
Come under my plaidy, a ballad,	67	Gleanings of ancient poetry,	219
The exequy, by Dr King,	68	from Gavin Douglas,	219
The rose,	70	Portsmouth hills,	249
Winter, an ode,	105	Verses copied from a window,	252
Verses in the Scottish dialect,	106	Lines written below a print of
Bonnet by Don Pedro Calderon,	107	a sleeping child,	294
— by Drummond of Hathernden,	ib.	To the snow drop,	ib.
To the author of verses, &c.	145	Ode by Matthew Bramble,	295
Advice to married ladies,	ib.	The complaint, by a lady,	296
The maid of Clyde,	146	Song by Thomson, never before
Gentle Kate, a song,	177	published,	329
On parting with a friend,	178	Lines found in an old book,	ib.
Prize,	ib.	The determination,	ib.