

heaven or hell, on principles of righteousness.—Matt. 25 : 13; Acts 1 : 11; 1 Thess. 4 : 13-18; John 5 : 28, 29.

COVENANT.

Having been, as we trust, brought by divine grace to embrace the Lord Jesus Christ, and to give ourselves wholly to him, we do now solemnly and joyfully covenant with each other to walk together in him, with brotherly love, to his glory, as our common Lord. We do therefore, in his strength, engage—

That we will exercise a Christian care and watchfulness over each other, and faithfully warn, exhort, and admonish each other, as occasion may require.

That we will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, but will uphold the public worship of God, and the ordinances of his house.

That we will not omit closet and family religion at home, nor neglect the great duty of religiously training our children, and those under our care, for the service of Christ, and the enjoyment of heaven.
