

PREFACE.

The Revised Constitution and Rules of Debate were adopted at the Second Annual Meeting of the Society, held in the Natural History Society Hall, on Tuesday Evening, October 13th, 1885. The Council desires to impress upon every member the fact that the success of the Society in a great measure depends upon a strict observance of these rules. Members are accordingly requested to read them carefully, and to comply with them on all occasions.