

the like power at any time, (upon observing the like formalities) to call a general meeting as aforesaid. And if the object for which any general meeting, called either by the stockholders or Directors as aforesaid, shall be to consider of a proposal for the removal of the President, or other Director or Directors, for mal-administration, then and in such case, the person or persons so proposed to be removed, shall from the day on which such notice shall first be published, be suspended from the execution of the duties of his or their office; and if he be the President, his place shall be filled up by the remaining Directors, to serve during the time of such suspension.

Twelfth.—Every Cashier and Clerk of the Bank, before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall give bond, with two or more sureties to the satisfaction of the Directors; that is to say, every Cashier in a sum not less than five thousand pounds, with condition for his good and faithful behaviour; and every Clerk with like condition, and sureties, in such sum as the Directors shall consider adequate to the trust to be reposed in him.

Thirteenth.—The Company shall not hold any lands and tenements, but such as may be necessary for the transaction and accommodation of the business of the Bank, and for no other purpose: It shall nevertheless be competent for the Directors, on behalf of the Company, to take and hold mortgages on property, by way of additional security for debts contracted with the said Company in the course of its dealings; but on no account shall money be lent upon mortgage, or upon lands and other fixed property, nor
