

(Continued.)

re-issue of the work, so hardly be more satis-
which first approaches
this final revision Mr.
ct, so far as they have
of pompous sentences,
and within the unity of
has removed many of permanent value ; and eat history which gives v takes rank with the
he author belongs."—

s which the venerable
the great work of his unt, but they become
of his fidelity to truth,
therefore of the sub-
no little pruning and
and, with a care and
ht what he says must
y who have for years
dit for presenting so
it as a noble monu-
many chapters to his
erald.

cut, with gilt top, $2.50;

rect, New York.