

THE ROSE OF GLENCONNEL

A Novel by MARGARET GIBBONS (MRS. PATRICK MACGILL). Crown 8vo. Cloth 3/6 net. Inland Postage 5d. extra.

Mrs. Patrick MacGill in her first novel tells the story of Rose Moran who, at the age of twelve months, is left an orphan in the mining and lumber camp of Glenconnel in the Yukon. The rough men of the West decide to adopt her and she becomes known as the Rose of Glenconnel, growing up into a beautiful and fearless girl of the wilds. When she is sixteen Dick Bryce enters her life and precipitates her into a series of adventures and hair-breadth escapes from which she is extricated only by her own fearlessness.

BINDLE

Some Chapters in the Life of Joseph Bindle, by HERBERT JENKINS, Author of "The Life of George Borrow." Cloth 3/6. Postage 5d. extra.

By profession Bindle is a journeyman furniture-remover, by nature he is a humorist. He discovers that a sense of humour is, like a tooth-brush, an intensely personal affair. When, for instance, he mixes alcohol with the lemonade at the Barton Bridge Temperance Fête, he alone fully appreciates the situation thus created. His home environment is one of deep religious gloom. Mrs. Bindle is too intent upon the next world to see in Bindle anything but an irresponsible heathen. "Lorst yer job?" is her invariable interrogation when Bindle finds some employer too deeply soaked in commercialism to see one of his "little jokes."
