

71.308073

No. 7.

This vault is divided by a number of arches, and was used for various purposes. At one period it was the guard-room for the sentries who were posted in front of the building.

Original tablet from Nelson's Monument on Jacques Cartier Square. This tablet was made in England, in 1808, and was in the monument for about ninety years.

In front of the Chateau, is the Louisbourg Gun, weighing four tons. This gun was on the French man-of-war La Prudente, which was sunk by the English in the harbor of Louisbourg, in 1758. It was raised in 1900, brought to Montreal, and presented to the Chateau by

S. Coulson, Esq.

The gun carriage—an old English one of oak, made in 1843—was presented by Sir Frederick W. Borden,

Minister of Militia.

The pile of solid shot number 91. This shot was brought from Cuba after the Spanish-American War.

R. W. McLachlan, Esq.

Cannon from one of the nine ships of Sir Hovenden Walker's fleet, wrecked on Isle-aux-Oeufs, Aug. 26, 1711, in the expedition which sailed for Quebec to wrest Canada from the French.

Geo. Boulter, Esq.

The front tower of the Chateau is surmounted by an antique wrought-iron vane [from the old Recollet Church, Notre-Dame Street, made in 1692.

On the rear tower of the Chateau is the Cross of the Recollet Church, 1692.

12 JAN 1973

080-S.H.S.