Besides carrying death in its wake and causing great physical discomfort, the present hot spell has been the means of inflicting heavy financial loss to the farmers and fruit growers of this district. Farmers on the market this morning complained of the damage they have already sustained. The fruit in several places has been literally burned up and the odor of scorched fruit in the country is very noticeable. If the heat continues for another two or three days, it is expected that all the present fruit crop in the currounding country will be completely destroyed, and later crops, such as apples, ing country will be completely destroying country will be completely destroyed, and later crops, such as apples, plums, peaches and grapes will be greatly reduced in size. The grain crop has also been seriously affected, and potatoes have been badly scorcned. While no reliable estimate ctn be made of the loss which will result to the farmers on account of the heat, it will run into thousands of dollars.
