London, Nov. 21.—Hamar Greenwood at Darlington spoke of the Liberal struggle with the house of lords, and said the upper house should be constituted on the principle of the Canadian senate. He had no objection to increasing the number of lords by making women peers, but he would object to women in the commons. (Laughter.) England would never get the colonies to send representatives to an imperial council as long as there was this hereditary and episcopal element. He was the best imperialist who wanted to make the lords more acceptable to the increasing millions with the condense of the Liberal work. cially consider Mr. Girdlestone's report.

As smooth as a billiard table.

Your comfort on a railway journey very largely depends upon the roadbed of the route you select. No matter how luxurious the coaches, or how much personal attention you receive from the employes, you cannot be comfortable if jolted and jarred by a poor and irregular roadbed. On the Lake Shore Railway no expense has been spared to make a roadbed a nearly perfect as the most skillful engineering could build, and, as a resu throughout the entire length and breadth of the system the right of way is as smooth as a billiard table. No jolts or jars, nor dust nor dirt. This perfection of service extends throughout the entire system. Lake Shore trains are the most luxurious, they are equipped with every comfort.
