A LONG CHASE.

Charged With Theft, Young Man Gives Detective Scenic Chase.

Truman Allen, 177 Hamilton-street, gave Acting Detective N. Guthrie a combination cross-country obstacle race run over a variety of back fences when he was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with stealing and converting into cash a cheque for $38.

It is alleged that Allen took the cheque from Edmund Taylor's pocket at the Taylor Storage Company's premises on the Don Esplanade. The loss was discovered, but the name of Taylor could not be reached by the police.

When Detective Guthrie took Mr. Taylor to the young man's house to identify him, the detective followed the rear door. The detective followed thru a series of back lanes. A number of high board fences were overtopped, and the pursuit led to the clothing country, dotted with ash barrels. Sundry small dogs joined in the race, which led into the more open country, where the chase was continued. A park was rapidly traversed, and the pursuit ended when the young man was finally run to earth between two ash barrels.

HAS HEEL-COMFORTING COUNTERS

Action of a Heel-Skinning Counter

What good are these Foot-rite ball and socket counters? They're this good! Their soft leather won't skin the heel, even though it may rub at every up and down movement, but that up and down rubbing is entirely eliminated by the ball and socket suction which forces the sole under the heel, also the counter at the back and sides, to hug the heel snugly as it lifts and lowers in walking. This suction is not noticeable. Like the shoulder joint it performs its office without being felt.

IMPROVEMENT NUMBER THREE

Don't know what is meant by a shoe counter? Well, it's the stiff leather that fits around the heel. It's the back stop of the shoe. It forms a leather cavity into which the heel fits. If wrongly built that cavity can inflict more agony than any other section of a shoe. In nearly all shoes it's given little or no care. It's usually constructed of Hemlock tanned, scrap sole leather, hard and stiff as stone, and is licked together in the cheapest way without shape or form. Result? A rigid, unbudgable, heel-skinning, pain-producing, walk-hindering counter.

Foot-rite counters are somewhat different—slightly. They're made of special oak-tanned counter stock, stout but soft, and being shaped the exact shape of a human heel, they are heel sockets, and when the heel ball fills them, they're practically ball and socket joints like the human shoulder, capable of moving in any direction and bound together by air suction.

Action of a Foot-rite Heel Comforting Counter

There's a Foot-rite dealer in your town. His name's below. Ask him to show you Foot-rite Heel Comforting Counters. You'll find his door swinging inward but never outward to find a more welcome store.

Anywhere in America, Canada or Great Britain—$4.00 and $5.00. Every pair Goodyear Welted.

FLOOD STILL OVER DON EXPECTS RELEASE TO-DAY

Premier Whitney Joins Leading Citizens in Petition For Pardon.

No word has been received from Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice, regarding the release of Tim Flood, the Toronto ball player, who kicked Umpire Conway during a game at Diamond Park.

All the facts have been laid before him, and J. Walter Curry, K.C., Flood's counsel, expects an answer some time to-day. He is looking for Flood's release.

The petition for Flood's release will probably reach record books and the law in the Standard Oil Company to-day.

The officers of the Toronto Ball Club are besieged with messages from prominent people asking for a chance to sign the petition. Hon. J. P. Whitney, premier of Ontario, signed it as a private citizen. Hon. J. J. Poy did not care, owing to his official position, to sign it. Many prominent business men and professional men have signed it.

Six clergymen who were at the game the day the assault took place, signed the petition at the request of Constable J. P. Whitney, who was at the scene. The officers of the Toronto Ball Club are besieged with messages from prominent people asking for a chance to sign the petition.

Major Costworth was also deeply interested in the case of Flood, and sent the following wire to the minister of justice:

"Believe the ends of justice have been fully satisfied in the Flood case, and am pleased to join petitioners in asking for his release."

Among the long distance champions of Tim Flood is Police Magistrate Jelfs of Hamilton, who declares that Flood's case is a case of a man who was sent to prison for a crime he did not commit.

Major Costworth was also deeply interested in the case of Flood, and sent the following wire to the minister of justice:

"Believe the ends of justice have been fully satisfied in the Flood case, and am pleased to join petitioners in asking for his release."

MINISTERS ENTERTAINED.

Canadians Still Cordially Inclined Towards France.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
LONDON, June 28.—In Paris to-day, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the other ministers were entertained at luncheon by the British chambers of commerce. In the evening, Jules Siegfried, ex-minister of commerce, gave a dinner in their honor.

The only French comment on their visit interprets it as a sign that Canadians still are most cordially inclined towards the country from which many of their ancestors came.

Loses His Last Lasts.

Alfred Gold, 35 Rosedale-road, was arrested by Acting Detective McMillan last night charged with the theft of a watch from Newman's, 460 Queen-street, watch from F. Welsh.

HAMILTON'S NEW PARK.

An official on the waterfront says there are more steamboat excursions booked for July this year than in any previous year of his experience. He says this is largely due to the fact that the new amusement park on the mountain top at Hamilton is attracting many Toronto picnickers.

People are always clamoring for new features, and Hamilton's new resort not only has the advantage of being a distinctly new thing, but presents many luring attractions. Being located on the brow of the mountain, where the air is sweet and bracing, it commands an uninterrupted view of the flourishing and picturesque city and the lake beyond, along whose shores for miles, on a clear day, the towns and cities can be easily discerned with the naked eye.

To adapt the place for picnics, the management have made a lavish expenditure of money. The palatial Mountain View hotel has undergone extensive improvement; pavilions for dancing and luncheon have been plentifully sprinkled over the 12-acre grove; a well-ventilated roller rink, with accommodation for 400 skaters, has been erected, and a great fund of mirth-provoking entertainment features provided.

The park was always there, and the incline railway has been in operation for many years, but the liveliness which has proven a source of enjoyment and constant attraction to the city has been added.

Kept the Change.
J. Miller, formerly employed as a street railway conductor, was arrested last night charged with the theft of $25 from the company.

He had held out the money given him for change and a few days ago sent $15 from Newman's, 460 Queen-street, watch from F. Welsh.
