The Demon Dyspepsia.—In olden time it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ablent air, seeking to enter into men and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial, ed

Chinese Emperor Moving Forward. The Emperor of China has sanctioned the opening of a National University at Pekin, and schools are to be established in the provincial capitals, from which pupils may graduate to intermediate colleges, and thence to the university. The Emperor also encourages newspapers to publish truthful and full accounts of daily events, even allowing criticism of himself and the Government. His object, he states, is to keep himself well informed in regard to both Chinese and foreign affairs.

foreign affairs. No Appointment Made. There was a full complement of members present last night at the meeting of the Library Committee of the Public Library Board in anticipation of a recommendation being made in reference to the appointment of a successor to the late secretary, John Davey. The matter was brought up, and, after a short discussion, was laid over until the next meeting. Several accounts were passed and Mr. John Jones was recommended as constable for the unemployed reading room, Mr. John Taylor presided.
