But our virtuoso found himself in the composition which represented the second period, the classico-romantic, namely, Beethovan's Sonata Patheti-que. And here we saw where Herr Sauer is not as great as Paderewski He has neither Paderewski's Titan technique nor his full-souled temperament. And in addition, Herr Sauer does not give the impression of more power he is using as Paderewski does. The latter is always the Titan. But Herr Sauer was particularly effective in the luscipus andante cantabile and the swinging rondo. The sonata was most beautifully played thruout, in some passages ravishingly.

Better things still were to come in the Brahms Interpretage and the Sales. The former would supposition to Mr. Verville, the Labor candidate. John Metcalf, seaman, of Montreal, got a year's imprisonment for stabbing a girl on Sept. 17. The prisoner made no comment on the sentence, but produced a letter from a brother in Canada, saying he ought to be sent to a hospital where the doctors "could knock the silly nonsense out of him."

WHITNEY AT BERLIN

4000 Hear Ontarie's Premier and Attorney-General In Criticism of Federal Government.

BERLIN, Oct. 22 .- (Special.)-An immense demonstration in the interests of the Conservative candidate was held here this evening, between 3000 and 4000 people turning out to hear Premier Whitney, Hon. J. J. Foy, A. C. Macdonell, and Candidate Reid at the auditorium. The meeting was enthusiastic to an extreme, all the speakers being frequently cheered, and the ovation to Sir James was such as has seldom been seen here. The visiting speakers arrived on the 6.15 train from Toronto, and a procession was formed at the station, headed by the 29th Regiment band, proceeding along the principal thorofares and then to St. Jerome's College, where luncheon

Mr. Macdonell followed in a brief speech. He attacked the Laurier government regarding Chinese and Japanese immigration and the customs tariff policy of the government, pointing out that at present Canada's imports exceeded exports by $1,000,00 annually. He told also of the destruction of the woolen industry.

Hon. Mr. Foy said the Liberals in coming to power in 1896 had no policy.
