JAP PRESS UNDER CENSOR

Fear That Unguarded Utterances May Provoke Uncle Sam. WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—From a re-liable private source it is learned here that the Investment that the Japanese Government, fearing the effect of unbridled discussion by the newspapers of Tokto of the anti-Japanese measures pending before the California Legislature, issued an order to-day placing all the newspapers in Japan directly under the government censorship for an indefinite period. A despatch to that effect was received a representative of the Japanese

It is said that the emperor's cabinet has been led to take this step thru fear of unguarded editorial comment, such as was common in paper of the sen-sational sort in Japan's capital during the critical diplomatic period following the immigration troubles of a year ago. The sweeping censorship was imposed only after the Hochi Simbun of Tokio, generally credited as the organ of Count Okuma, addressed an open letter to Ambassador O'Brien, which was couched in studiously polite terms, but which contained much veiled insolence. This is the first time that the Japanese Government has exercised its right of censorship to such a widespread deof censorship to such a widespread degree. During the riots which occurred in Tokio and Kobe following the peace of Portsmouth, the Katsura ministry exercised a right of supervision over several of the Tokio papers and even suspended three or four; but it did not go to the length of requiring a strict reckoning for its editorial utterances from all of the press of the capital.

Even during the war with Russia the government exercised no more censor-ship over the press than that expressed in its general order that no news of the movements of the army or navy should be published,

Heart Trouble was Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Andrew Savoy, Grattan's, N.B., writes:—"In the year 1905 I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. My trouble was with my heart and people told me that nothing could be done for a case like mine. I consulted the very best doctors but they could do me no good. For seven weeks I could hardly cross the floor. I had no pain, but was so weak nobody in the world can believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-

One day a friend came to see me, and "One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but for two days I was not feeling any better, but on the fourth day my husband said, 'I believe those pills are doing you good.' I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' He said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three does out of the third one, and I was perfectly well and third one, and I was perfectly well and
