Oshawa, Sept. 12.—The biggest crowd that ever attended the Oshawa Fair was the announcement handed out by the directors this afternoon. The weather was ideal, bright and sunshiny, with just enough breeze to make it bracing. The exhibits were much abed of former years and the parade of the prize animals before the grand stand was a credit to the County of Ontario, and much better than fairs of greater pretentions. The display of both light and heavy horses, as well as cattle, was splendid.

An aviator from Leaside caused considerable commotion as he circled over the ground and finally landed on the gold links, adjoining the association's ground, After spending a short time on the grounds, he finally soared away toward the aerodrome.

The races were as usual, the drawing FOURTH RACE—All ages, the Manhattan Handicap, 1 mile:
