

CONSCRIPTION

Mr. William Peterson, President of McGill University, recently returned from France, and was conspicuous with a whole heart in the war. He says, everlastingly, that the war is the greatest of all.

"And that," he continued, "is what we have got to do. We have got to have a war. It would be a most glorious thing for Canada to help supply the last half million men that are needed to win this war."

"Toronto World," Oct. 4th, 1916.

How many do you hear in a day's experience whose chiefest expression appears to be, "I cannot make up my mind!" Mind, indeed! That is only a pendulum which oscillates between "I will" and "I won't."

MEMO OF CANADA, why vacillate longer in your consideration of the vital question—My duty, what should I do—and when?

Claver, at Devonshire Park, on Four Winners

WINDSOR, Oct. 3.—Today's race results are as follows:

"Claver" Bryan and W. J. O'Hara arrived at the course today and expressed satisfaction with the plant and course. They will leave here for Bowls, where the meeting opens on Nov. 14. They stated that extensive improvements were being made to the Bowls plant and they felt assured that the course would present a very good appearance when opened. The Bowls meeting will bring racing to a close for the season in Maryland.

Jockey Guy Burns was a visitor at the course today.

Redland was claimed out of the fourth race by E. L. Frazier for $1500.

The plater, Wild Horse, burst a blood vessel during the seventh race yesterday and had to be destroyed.

The victory of Gentlewoman in the second race was a popular one. This filly is owned by Captain W. J. Press, one of Ottawa's most prominent owners. The filly had recently been turned over to Geo. Cochran's farm, this being her first start under his care. Geo. Cochran is a U. S. trainer who won so many races with the mare Ormuli.
