Once more the women of the Riverdale Patriotic League made a success of the receipts from their bazaar, and show the satisfactory sum of $4500. The Riverdale workers only made one appeal to the public during the year, and from this fund immense quantities of flannel and varu to supply the work-room at the Y.M.C.A., Broadview avenue, are purchased. The rooms are open every day except Saturday and Sunday from nine to five o'clock; therefore it will be readily realized what a quantity of material is used in making the many comforts sent to the front for the Canadian soldiers by the Riverdale Patriotic League, and much credit is due to the convenor, Mrs. John Phin; Mrs. Ewart Wilson, president of the league, and Mrs. James McGlashin, the committee and workers.
