Estate Notices.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—IN THE Matter of the Estate of Mrs. Ruby B. Helmer, 1413 Dundas St. W., of the City of Toronto, in the County of York, Milner, insolvent.

NOTICE is hereby given that the above-named has made an assignment to me, under R.S.O., 1914, Chapter 134, of all her estate and effects for the benefit of her creditors.

A meeting of Creditors will be held at my office, 73 King Street East, in the City of Toronto, on Thursday, the 15th day of January, 1920, at 3.30 p.m., to receive claims and to consider the possibility of organizing the city for defence. Evacuation of the United States relief workers, it is stated, would entail many difficulties.

The Bolshevik forces in Siberia are moving eastward rapidly along the trans-Siberian railway. The capture of seventeen columns of Polish legionaries, sixteen guns and 20,000 rifles in the Krasnoyarsk region is reported in a Bolshevik communication received here today. The occupation of Balai station, about 50 miles east of Krasnoyarsk, is also reported.

The communication says in the Russian journal fighting continues with alternating success. The Bolsheviks retired about six and one-half miles east of the river Dubna.

Deserters from anti-Bolshevik armies to the number of 2,600 have joined the Soviet forces in the Narva region between January 9 and 12, according to a wireless despatch from Moscow.

In the Alexandrovsk region, the Bolshevik announcement states disarming of the troops of General Makhnko is proceeding and one regiment has joined the Bolshevik forces.

The Moscow despatch reports a message from Tcheliabinsk as saying that the Chinese Bolsheviks have entered into an agreement to co-operate with their Russian comrades and operate along the "coastal region."

The Bolshevik forces in Siberia are moving eastward rapidly along the trans-Siberian railway. The capture of seventeen columns of Polish legionaries, sixteen guns and 20,000 rifles in the Krasnoyarsk region is reported in a Bolshevik communication received here today. The communication says in the Russian journal fighting continues with alternating success. The Bolsheviks retired about six and one-half miles east of the river Dubna.

Deserters from anti-Bolshevik armies to the number of 2,600 have joined the Soviet forces in the Narva region between January 9 and 12, according to a wireless despatch from Moscow.

In the Alexandrovsk region, the Bolshevik announcement states disarming of the troops of General Makhnko is proceeding and one regiment has joined the Bolshevik forces.
