FOR ADVERTISERS

(From Printers' Ink, Aug. 8) The Printers' Ink man brought specimens of the St. John dailies home with him and submitted them to the inspection of an advertiser who has had a good deal of experience in dealing with and valuing newspapers; asking him to look them over carefully, note the news, general reading matter, market reports, society, base ball, etc., together with a consideration of the advertising columns, and make known his decision by marking the papers 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 in the order of merit as it appeared to him. The papers were returned marked as directed which led to their being arranged in the following order:

The Daily Telegraph, the Evening Times, St. John Star, St. John Globe, the Sun.

For classified advertisements he reported The Daily Telegraph to be materially in advance of any of the others.

OFFERED $5,000 FOR THE CHILD

Rich Southerner Wanted to Adopt a Little Boy, but Foster Mother Would Not Give Him Up.

A man and his wife, who are childless, and who live not a hundred miles from this city, decided some months ago to adopt a boy baby from one of the orphan asylums.

The man is in good circumstances, and their home is a very pretty one. So husband and wife decided that a baby boy should be brought in to add to their happiness. One of the asylums was visited, and a bouncing boy was chosen and taken home.

Recently a number of tourists from Florida visited a country resort in this province. A rich gentleman with his wife were in the party. They had had the misfortune to lose their only son.

Now for the sequel to the story. The lady with her adopted child was stopping at the same place in the country. One day she took her adopted boy out for a drive, when the gentleman from Florida, who had been making the baby, with tears in his eyes, cried out:

"I would like to adopt that child. I never saw his equal. And in quick, southern fashion, he said to the foster-mother: 'I'll tell you what I will do. If you will let me have him I will fill in a cheque for you for $5,000.'

"No," replied the faithful little mother, "not if you gave me $100,000 would I part with my baby."

The man from Florida was advised to visit the orphan asylums, which he promised to do before returning south.

RAIN WILL DO GREAT GOOD

Notes Picked Up Around Indiantown this Morning-- The Steamers.

"This rain will do a power of good," said an up-river farmer to a Times man this morning. "The soil was dry and the crops needed moisture in the worst way."

It is also reported that this rain has extinguished the forest fires.

Captain Porter, in conversation with the Times this morning said that the Springfield is now in readiness and all that is required is a new crew, which will soon be procured.

The captain said also that the company was being reorganized.

The Elaine arrived this morning at 10.40 and brought with her a large list of passengers.

Despite the fact that the Crystal Stream was over a quarter of an hour late leaving her wharf this morning, one intending passenger was left behind and another had a close call.

The steamer had just swung out from her wharf when an old man with a flowing white beard, and carrying a cane of the crooked type, came hobbling through the doorway while he shouted: "Come take! Come take!" A younger man would have jumped on to the lower deck, but the steamer had taken the elderly man's requisite for such a feat out of the elderly gentleman. A plank was stretched from wharf to steamer and the old man walked rapidly along it, while many spectators waited to see him take a dip in the water. Once on the deck he heaved a sigh of happiness.

The one left was a lady who had telephoned to hold the boat for her. She sped towards Indiantown in an electric car, and when she reached the wharf she had the pleasure of watching the Crystal Stream sail on without her. She was highly indignant, as she claimed that the steamer agreed to wait for her.

PATENT BRICK MACHINE

A demonstration has recently been given in Sussex of a process of making cement brick by a patent machine manufactured in Ontario. A representative of the manufacturers was there, and it has elicited favorable comment and a company will likely be formed with certain territory in Sussex. These cement bricks are most rapidly and cheaply built and are strong and enduring. The machine will build upwards of 7,000 brick per day, and will manufacture paving blocks, tiles, etc., of first class quality. The matter is being handled by A. E. Chartres, of Sussex.
