IRISH CHOOSE DELEGATES

O'Brien Faction, However, Refuses to Recognize Convention London, June 22—Irish Unionists and Nationalists held a meeting in Westminster and selected delegates for the Irish convention.

William O'Brien, in a letter to the premier, declined the invitation to send delegates in behalf of the "All for Ireland party." He refuses to participate in the convention, which, he says, contains only infamously and intensely Irish content, and throw on the Irish people the blame for the government's own failure.

BY AUTHORITY PROCLAMATION

JOSIAH WOOD. His Honor the Lieutenant Governor directs the publication of the following for general information:

Whereas, the 1st of July is the semi-centennial of the confederation of the Canadian provinces; And, whereas, a joint committee of the Senate and House of Commons was appointed to consider and report on the proper celebration of the occasion; And, whereas, the said committee have recommended that the celebration on that day be as general as possible, without expensive and elaborate display, as befits war time, and carried out on the broadest social and democratic lines, a plain sincere people's demonstration, a tribute to the founders of our Dominion and the institutions and ideals of our common country;

We do most earnestly request that the cities and municipalities of the province, clubs and patriotic associations, cooperate with the citizens generally in commemorating the day and the occasion, along the lines suggested in the report.

In view of the terrible war in which we are engaged the occasion should be one for serious thought and full recognition of the grave dangers to which Canada and the Empire are exposed, and the obligations that rest upon us all as citizens. We especially request that the clergy and all denominations throughout the province, Sunday school superintendents and teachers, in the religious services of Sunday, the 1st of July, honor to the memory of the noble and brave men who have made the supreme sacrifice for their country, as well as to those who are still facing danger and death upon the battlefield, and that the religious exercises of the day be characterized with a spirit of loyalty, unselfish service, and earnest prayer for the success of the sacred cause for which we are fighting.

And we further request that on Monday the 2nd of July all municipal and city officers co-operate with the various patriotic localities, and that all citizens by a display of flags and suitable decorations at their homes and places of business, give hearty support and countenance to this movement, that this semi-centennial celebration of confederation may testify to our appreciation and grateful acknowledgement of the many blessings and great prosperity our province has enjoyed, and the honor to the unity and patriotism of the Canadian people.

ROBERT MURRAY, Provincial Secretary-Treasurer.

To Teachers and School Officers: In accordance with the proclamation of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, teachers and school officers are requested at the school closings for the present term, to have special reference made, in as far as is practicable, to the fiftieth Anniversary of Confederation and the historic incidents connected therewith.
